REALITIES

CRUSH We're No. 1!

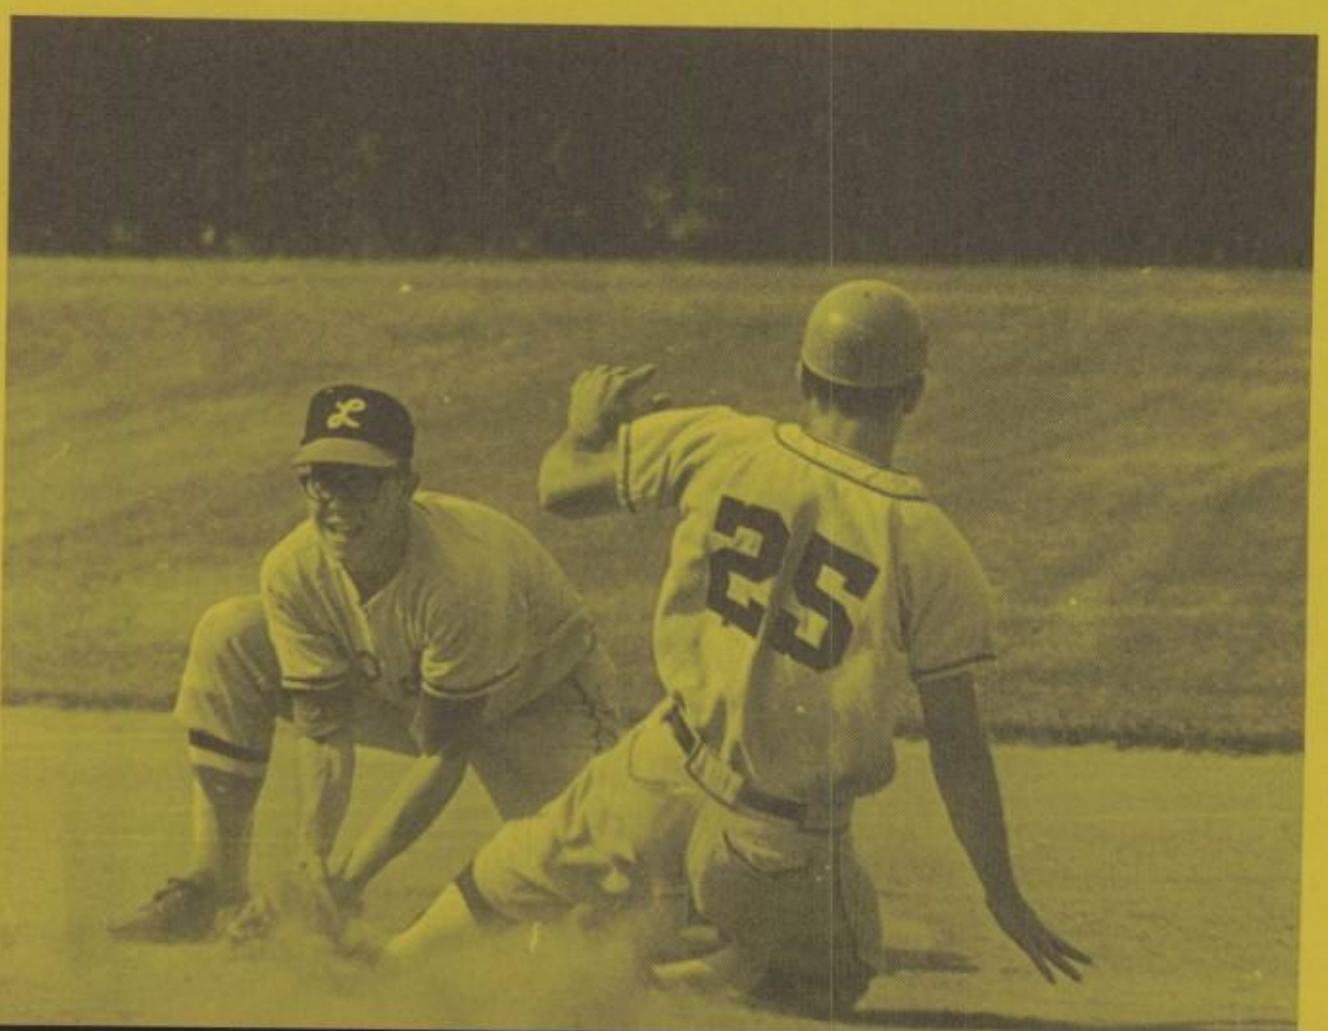
Coach Ken Schreiber led his Slicers all the way to the State Tournament. Here he is seen during tense and exciting moments of the final nine innings on their drive to victory.

Hundreds of hometown fans gathered in the downtown area on the evening of June 10,1967 to welcome the arrival of our champs and the state baseball trophy.

It was team spirit and cooperation that enabled the Slicers to become no. 1.



Plays like this, when Dave Hostetler tagged out an Indianapolis Arlington player, helped us win the State Tournament.

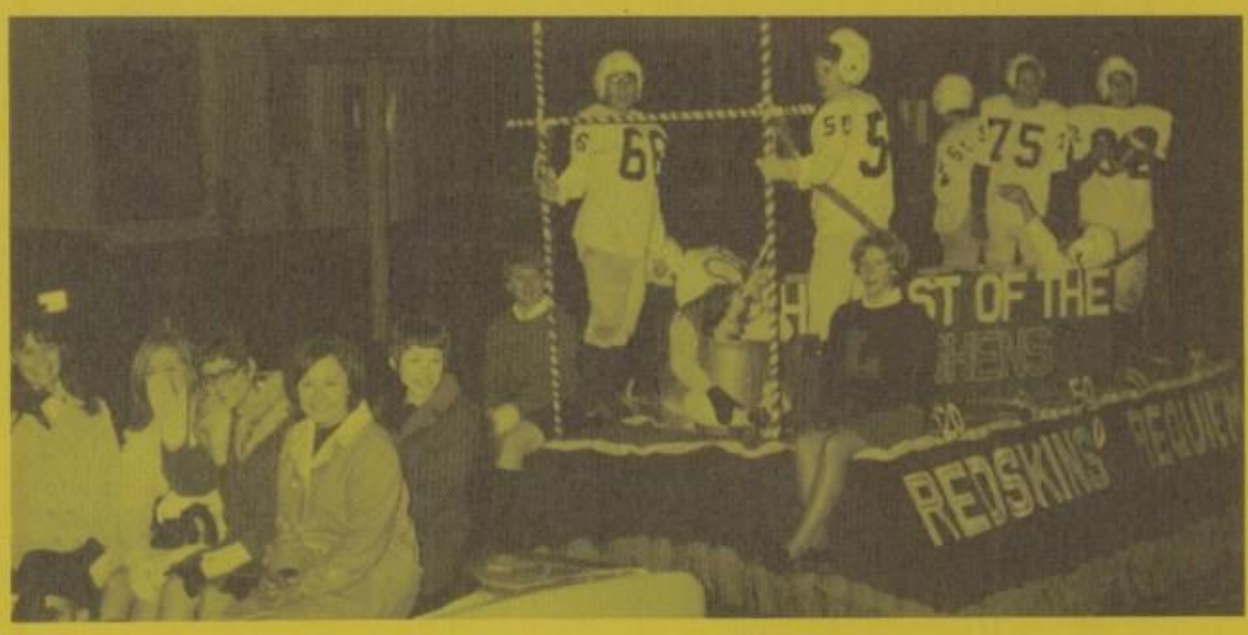
Cheerleaders

This year's cheerleaders were Captain Gloria Oakes, Darlene Davis, Judy Moore, Sally Pfaff, Cathy Masterson, and Paula Lazarek.

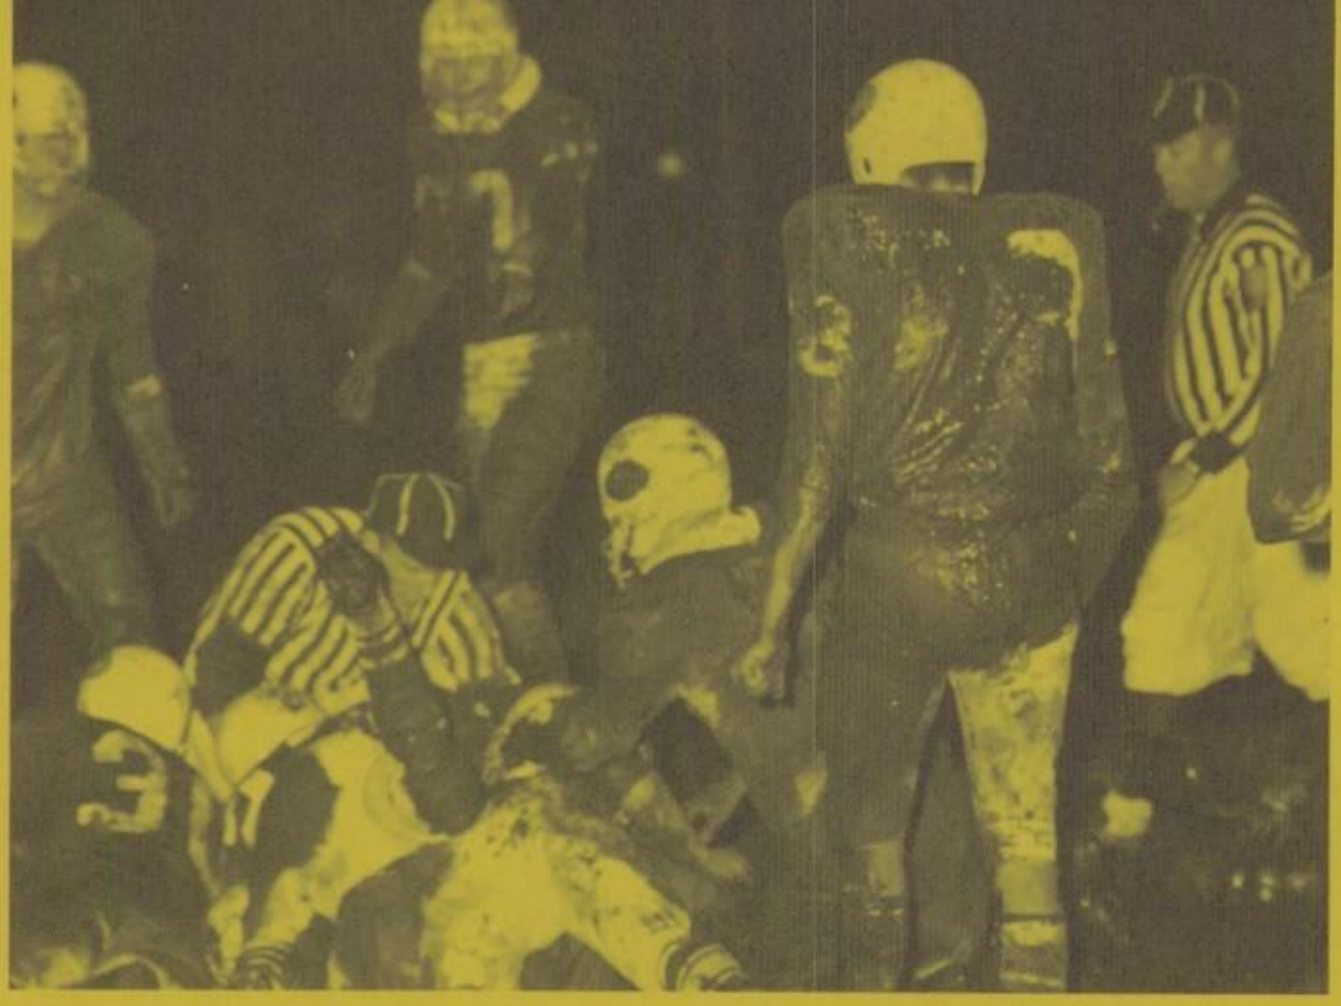
HOMECOMING '67

The Boy's Service Club and the Foreign Language Club floats won the awards as the best floats during the pre-game parade.

And the crowd cheered on and on and on . . .

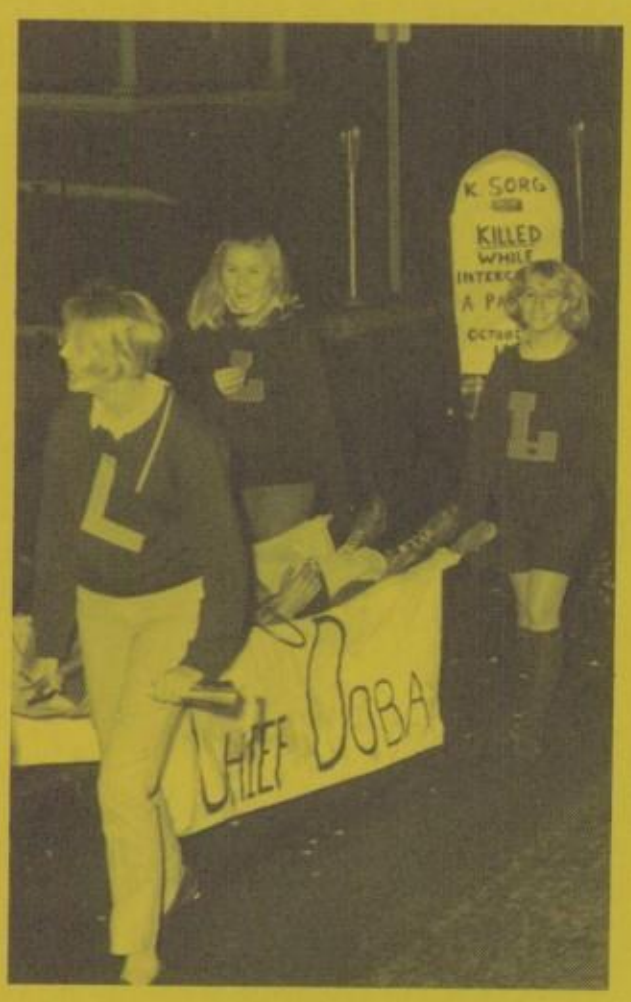


Pepper Club float was pulled by a car carrying five of the excited and smiling queen candidates.



The Slicers were up to their knees in mud and victory as they played their last home game of the 1967 season.

These representatives of the Girl Reserves marched through the streets proclaiming "Requiem for the Redskins" which was this years Homecoming theme.



V-I-C-T-O-R-Y. Victory is the Slicer Cry!

And the band played on and on and on . . .

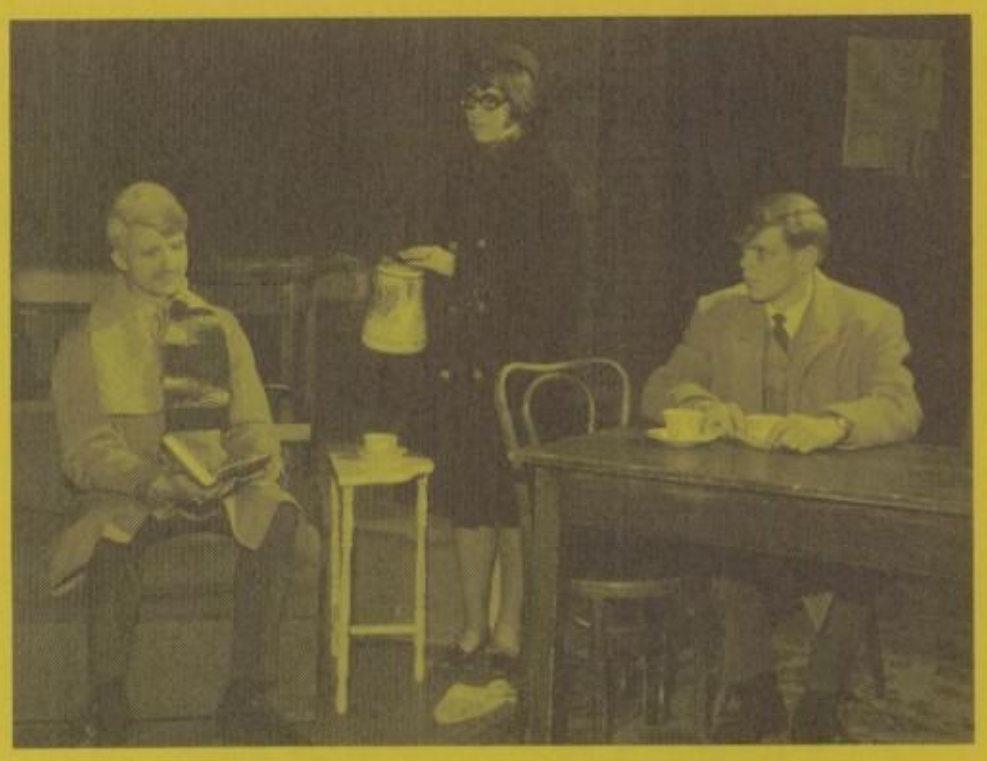
Diary of Anne Frank



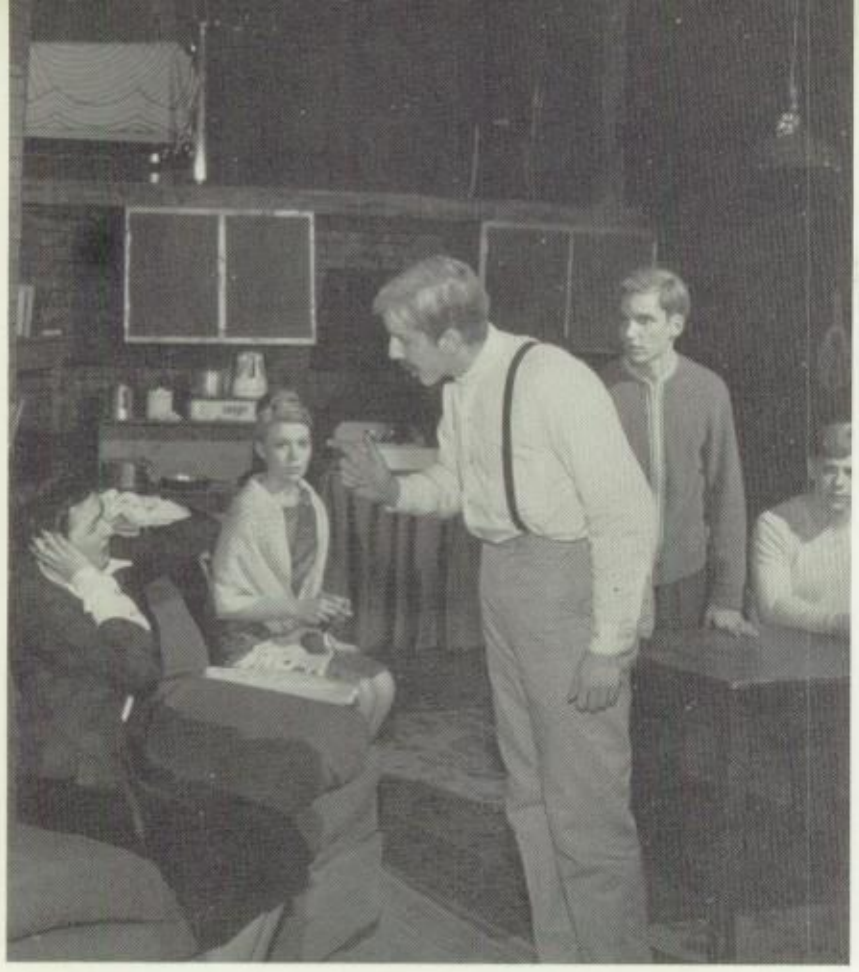
As the play opens, Mr. Frank is painfully recalling his family's tragedy after finding Anne's diary in the attic.

The entire cast is shown here celebrating New Year's.

The strained relationship between Anne and her mother is shown throughout the play.

The Cast

Mr. Frank	Steven Hoskins
Miep	Kit Christensson
Mrs. Van Daan	Alicia Bonnet
Mr. Van Daan	Alan Palm
Peter Van Daan	Mark Hargrave
Mrs. Frank	Valerie Scott
Margot Frank	Susan Pieszchala
Anne Frank	Kathryn Finley
Mr. Kraler	John Seimetz
Mr. Dussel	James Myers
Mouschi	Sam (the cat) Buchner



The pressures and irritations of living in close quarters exploded in dramatic scenes.

The shortages led to family rivalries and the stealing of food for survival.

For one brief, happy moment, everyone rejoiced at the news of the American invasion of Normandy.

Anne found Peter to be someone special and understanding to talk with and with whom to spend the endless hours of waiting.

First love helped to ease the hardships of the war years spent in hiding for Anne and Peter.

The lively art of languages

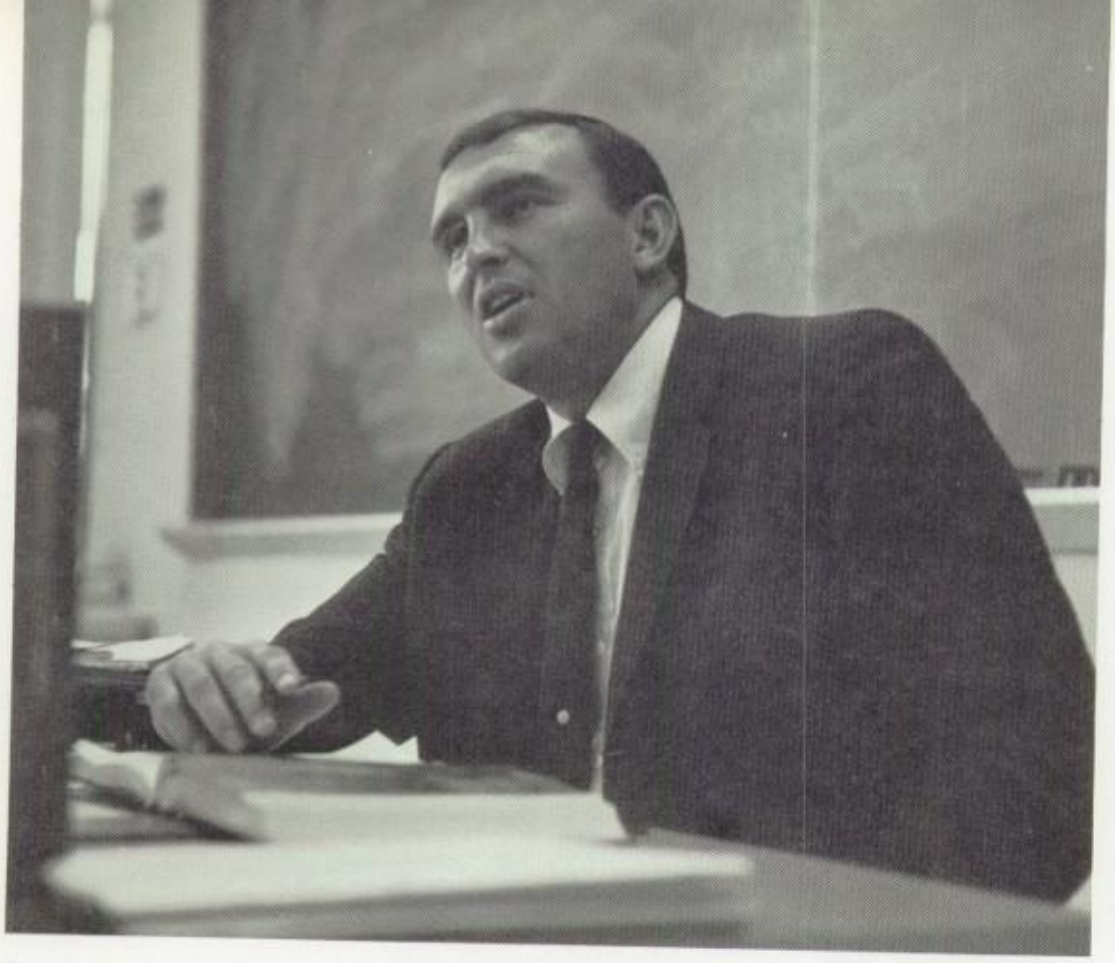
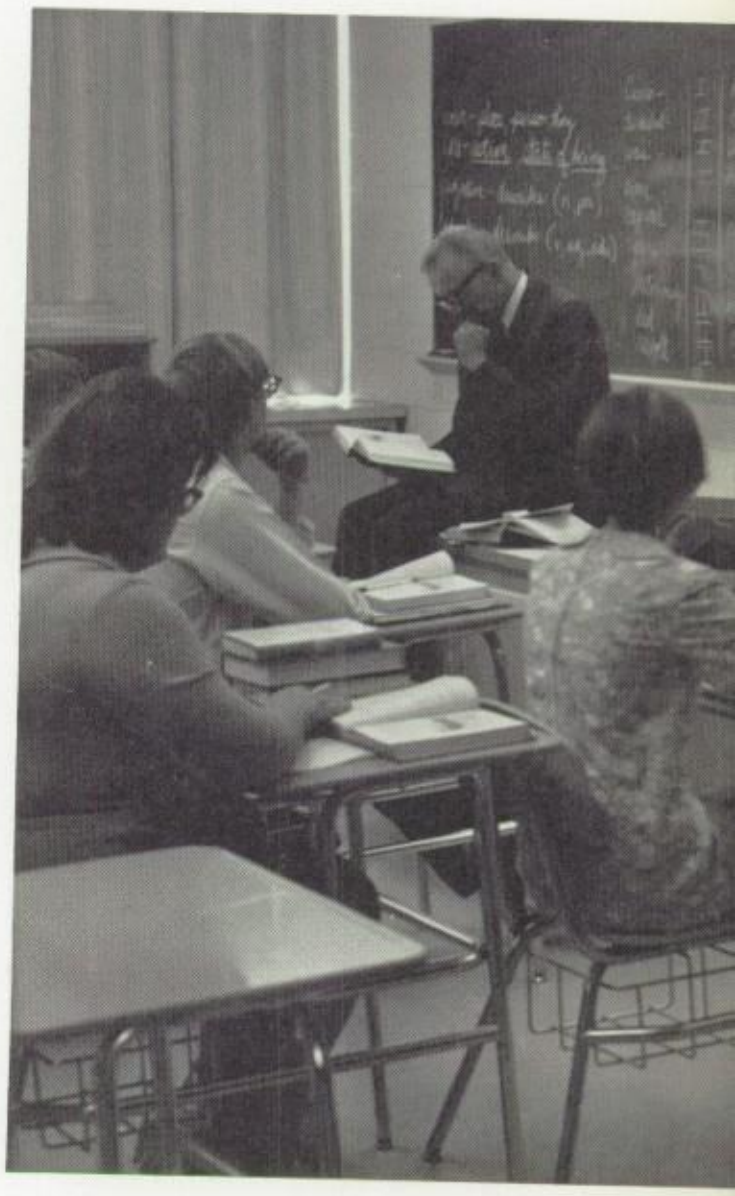
Miss Nierman answers a question for a student in one of her speech classes.

Student teacher Mrs. Joe Van Mol, under the direction of Mrs. Morgan had the opportunity to test all of her classroom skills.

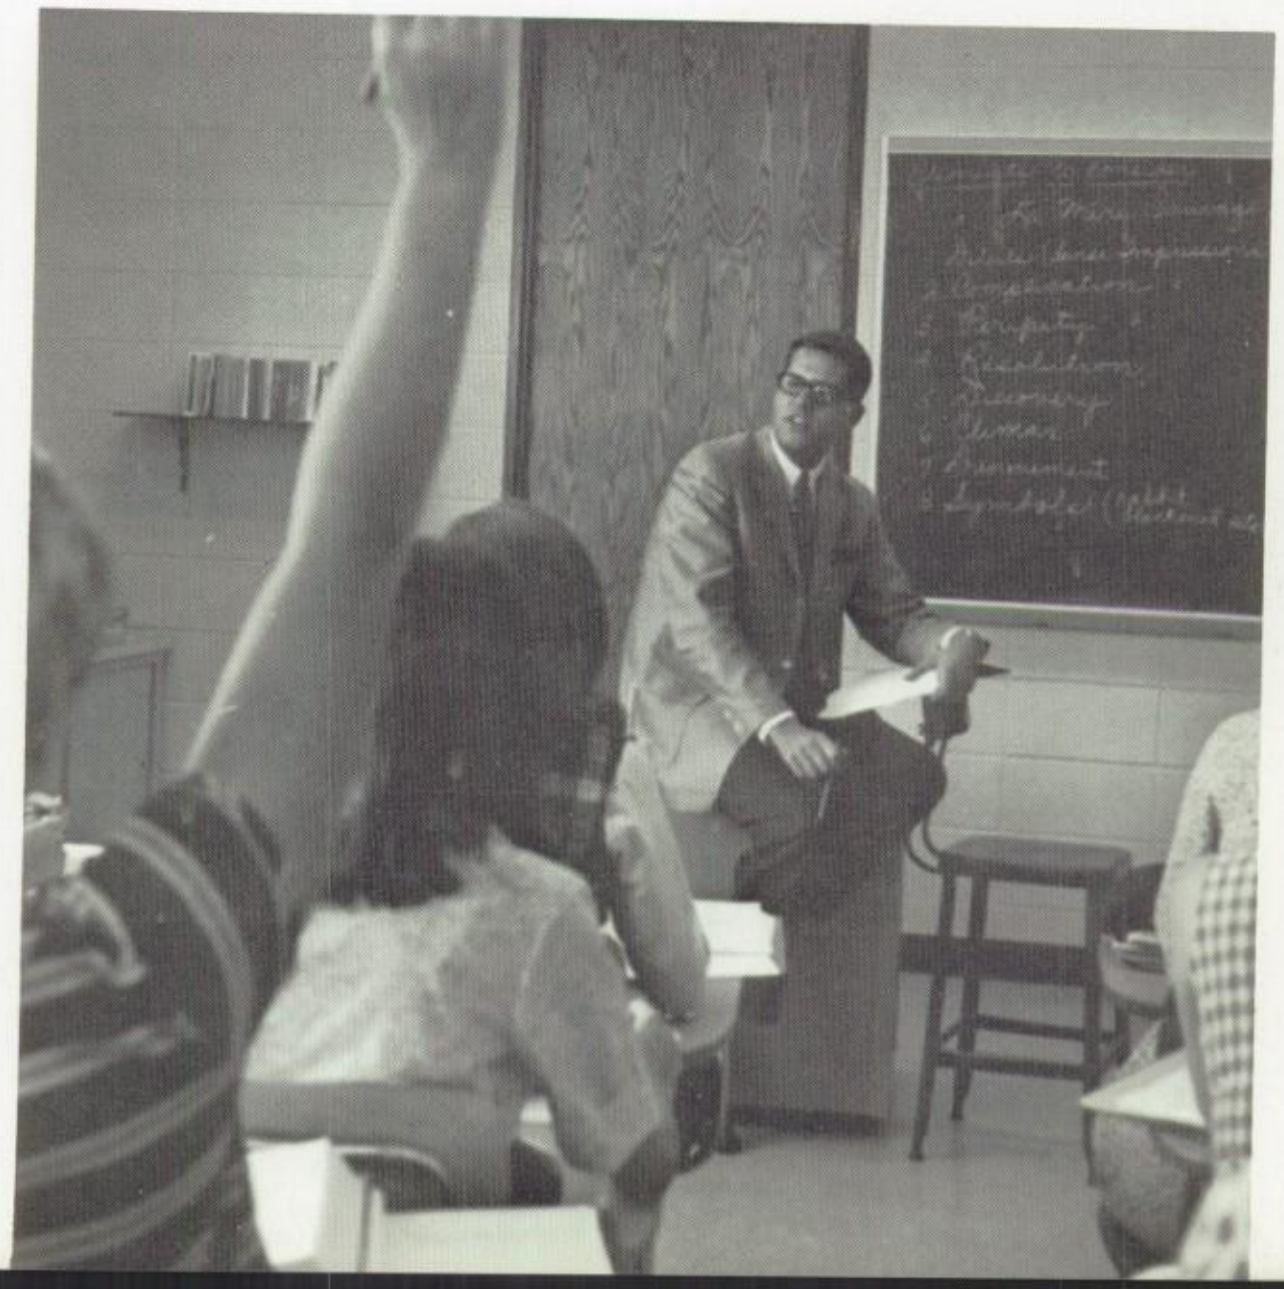


Former El Pe staffer, Mr. James Bailey, is now a member of the English department staff.

Teachers do think!



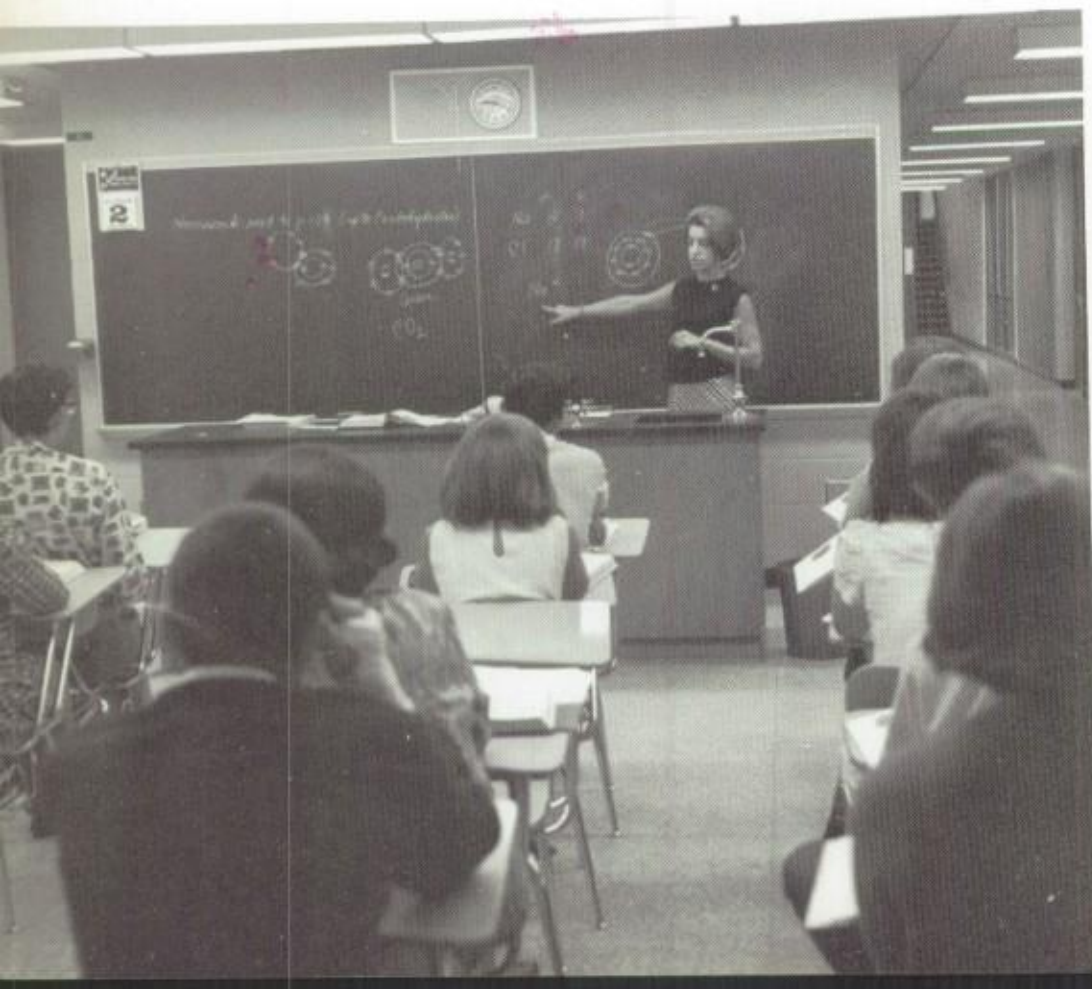
A Senior Honors Course was organized for the first time last fall under the direction of Mr. Shannon Reffett. The course gives its students a wider variety of world literature and creative composition.



Miss Hogle makes Geometry as easy as ABP.

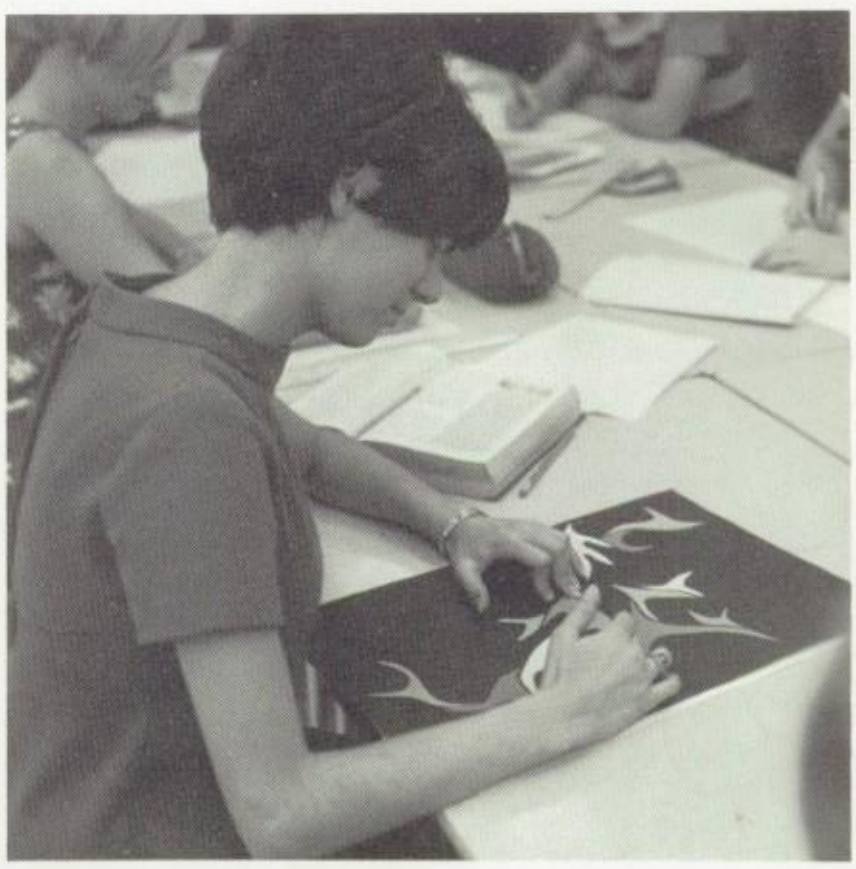
Math, science, and art: classical skills are given a modern touch

Advanced Algebra and higher math, under the direction of Mr. Peterson, prepares a student for college math.

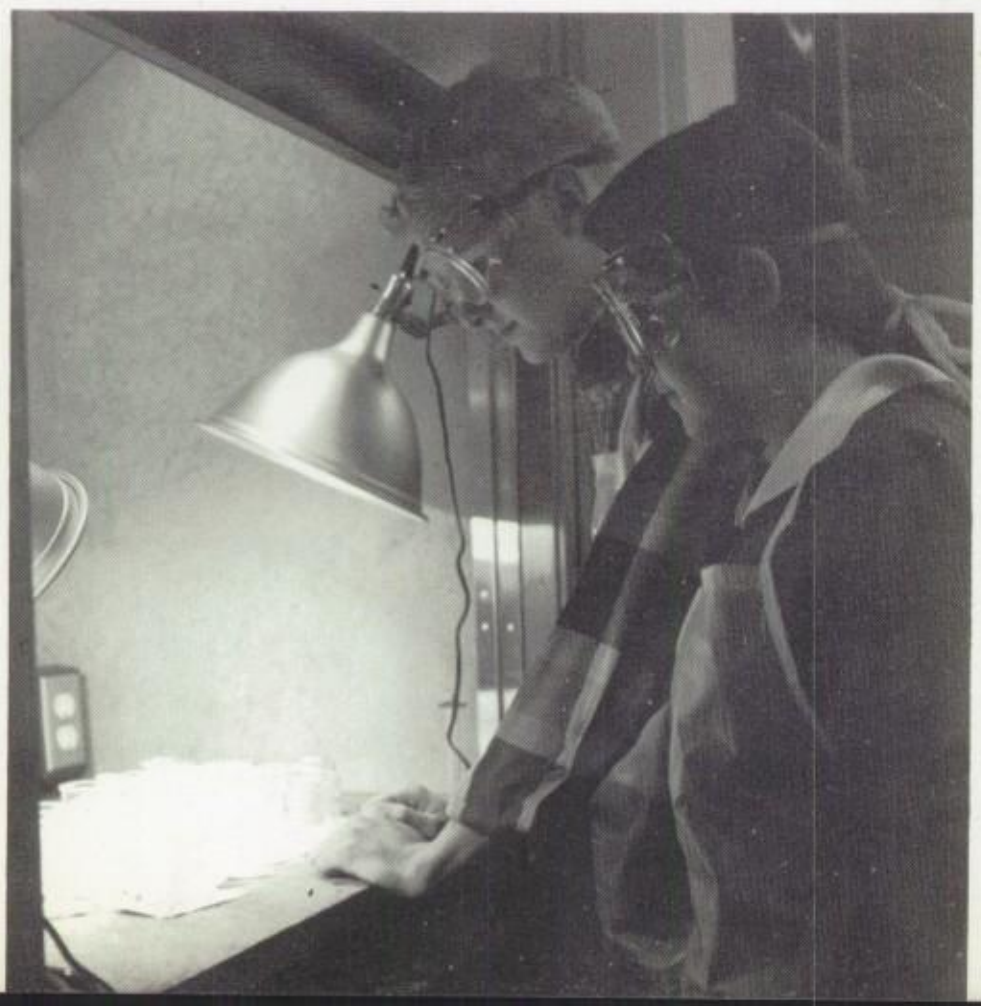


The molecules all fall in place in Miss Moritz's Biology class.

Mr. Dauterich assists a student with an art project.



Time and patience are required to compose an artistic design.



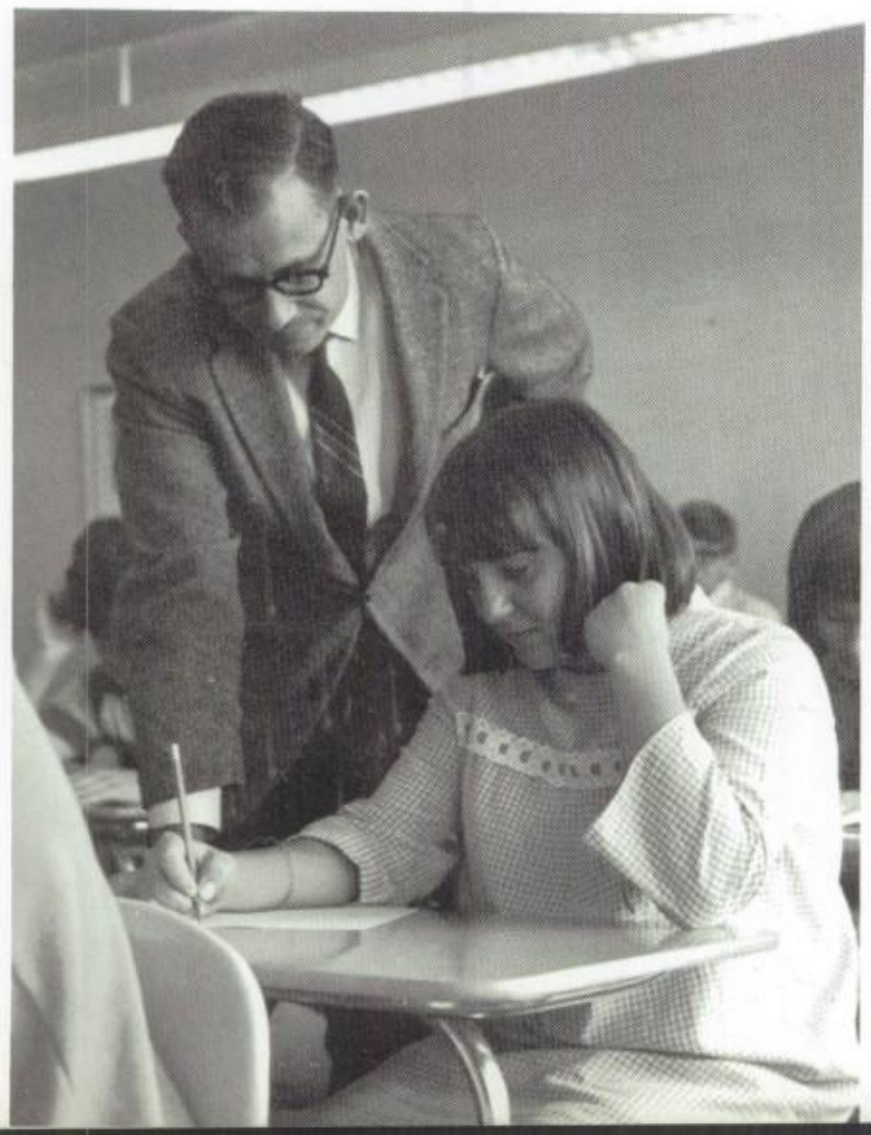
Observation is an important part of any science class.

Mr. Tarnow becomes deeply involved and concerned in the discussions of his Psychology classes.

Social studies places the individual in the total picture

Mr. Brinklow gives his World History classes an insight as to "what went on before we got here".

Mr. Sights realizes the importance of U. S. History to the individual.



Mr. Hoke's Health class isn't always this serious.

The Phys. Ed. classes enjoy a chance to go outside.

Determination and enthusiasm can always be seen in Mr. McKeever's students.

Girls, watch those extra pounds go as you play hockey!

Emphasis on physical fitness and health

Vocational arts: for those who want something extra

Mrs. Yarno is always around if anyone needs help with her sewing.

Yes, boys can learn to cook too!

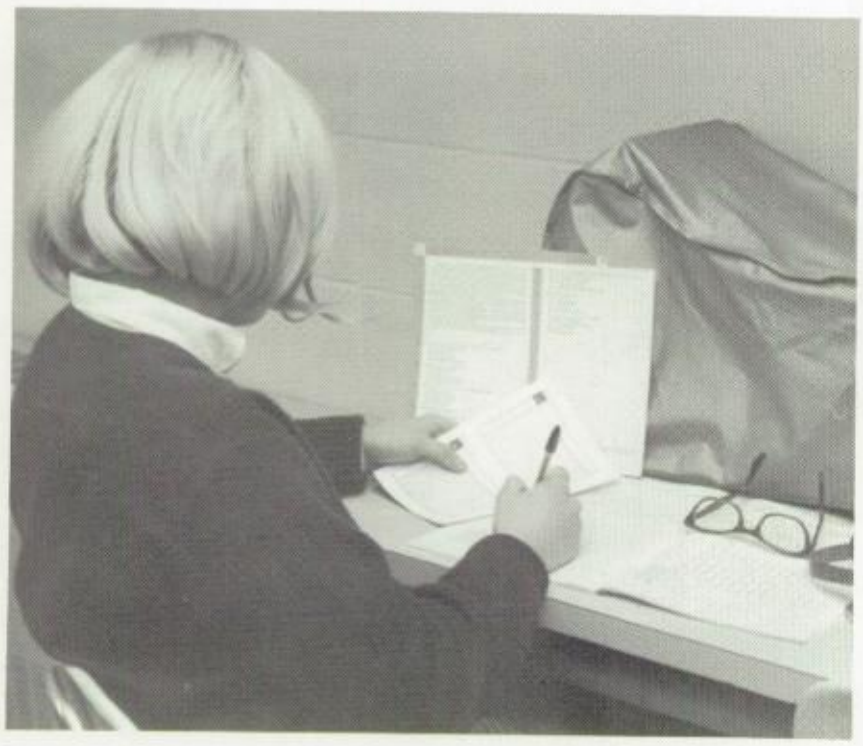
Miss Huddleston prepares her students for a timed exercise.

Precision is necessary in making well-fitted outfits.

These boys find it easier working together on a project in Electricity.

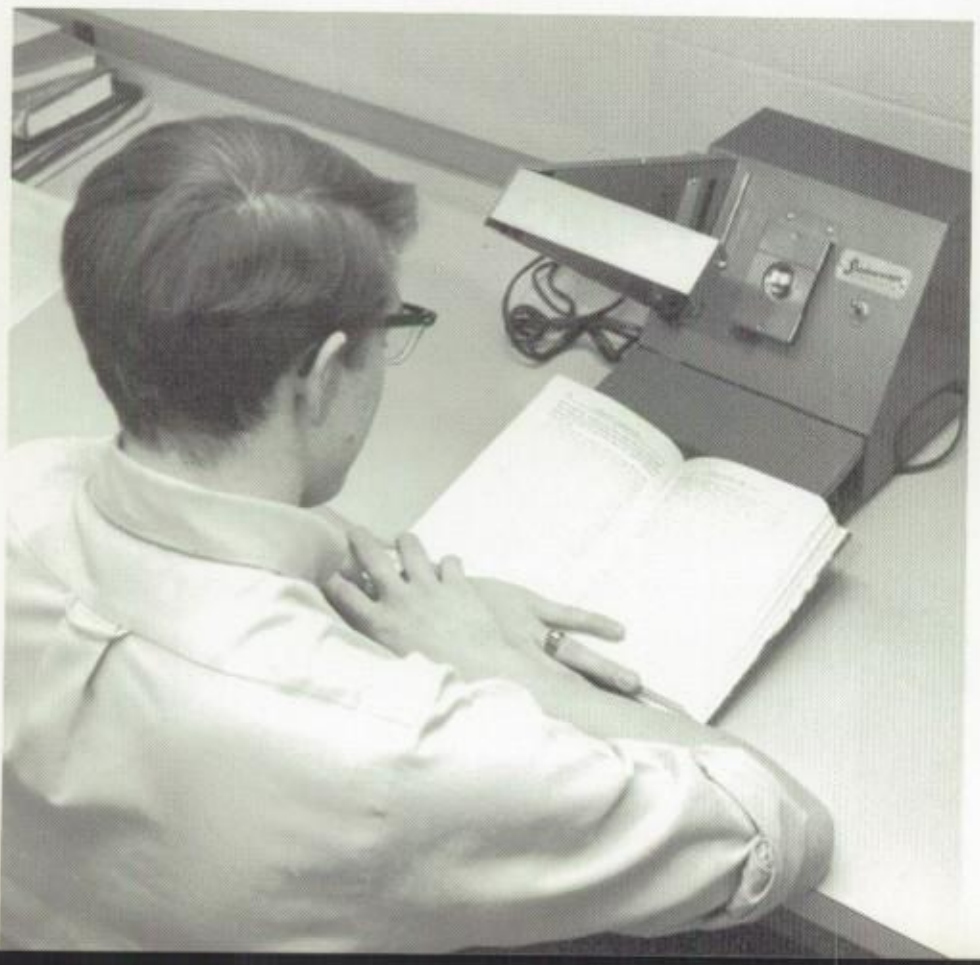
Mr. Van Wagner explains a drafting assignment to a puzzled student.

Speed-reading builds one's comprehension through the use of reading drills.

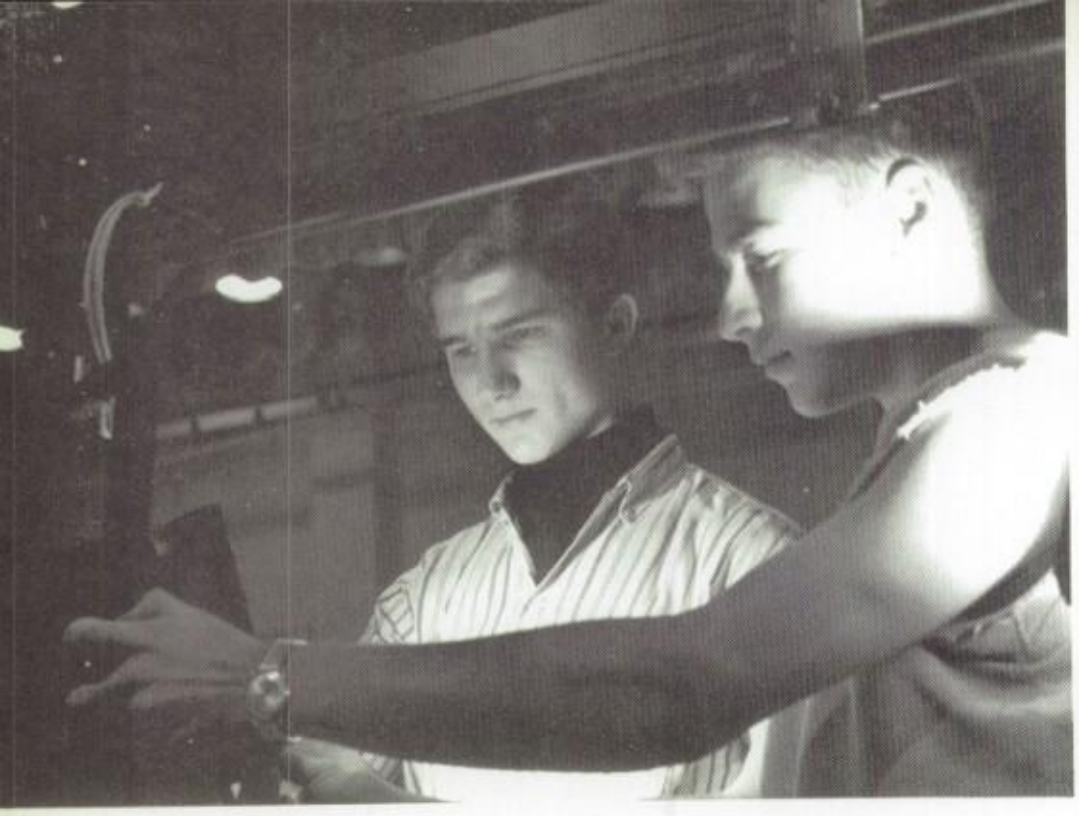


Mr. Prokl emphasizes safety in the use of all shop machines.

With the help of machines, proper techniques can be learned in order to increase reading speed.



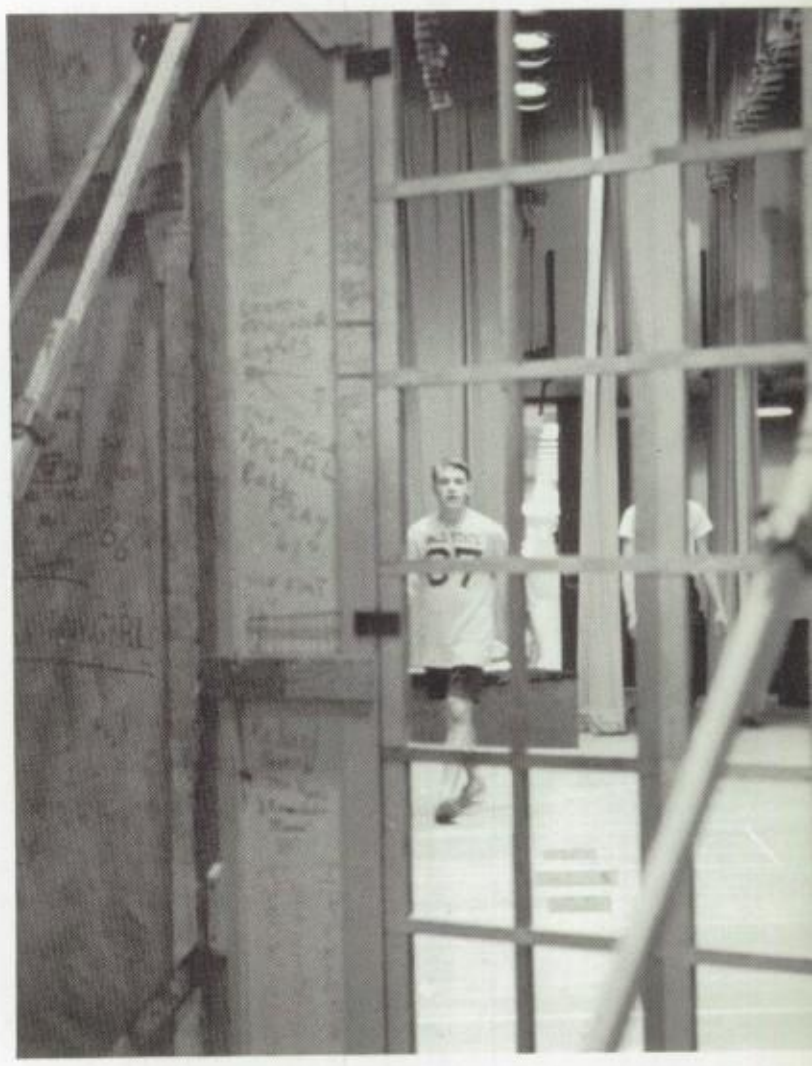
Stage tech: a class for the people behind the scenes



Proper lighting is always necessary for an effective performance.

With Miss Nierman as their guide, students all work together to prepare the stage.

Washing off the flats is a part of building a new scene.



Here is a side of the stage that few people see.

Mastering the complicated panel is one of the class's assignments.

Senior honors

The Elks Leadership winners were Paul Gullickson, Dan Fridh, Marty Essling, and Pam Philbrook.

The Elks Scholarship winners were Dan Fridh, Gary Wedow, Donna Schmitt, and Norma Hart.

Norma Hart represented LaPorte in the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Contest.

Donna Schmitt was the state V.F.W. "I Speak for Democracy" winner.

Mary Chambers won the Betty Crocker award.

Part of the large cast is shown here during one of the many songs.

"Good news": a show that lived up to its name

A girl on a football team!?! It happened in "Good News".

A little gambling before a big game helps to ease the tension.

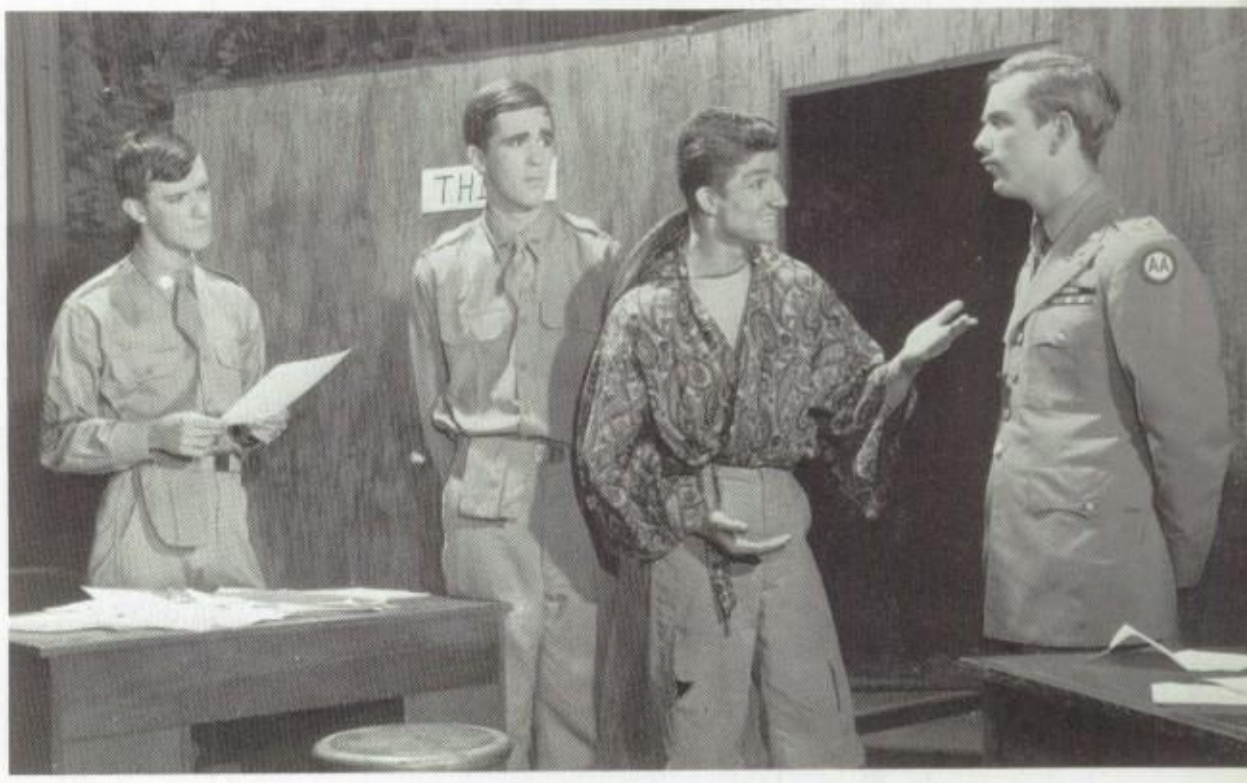
The dancers are around to lead everyone in a cheer before the game.

A happy ending? Of course! The football hero and his tutor make a perfect couple.

A proud Bobby shows off his car on which he has only two-hundred more payments.

The teahouse of the august moon

Steve Hoskins did an excellent job in characterizing the informative and amusing interpreter Sakini.



Although an Army office is a place of strict discipline, Sakini manages to disrupt the business-like atmosphere.

The Cast

Lotus Blossom	Karla Krentz
Captain McLean	John Seimetz
Wrestler	Ken Monte
Directors	Miss Vera Kellogg, Miss Nancy Nierman

The American Army found that their jeeps could be used for public transportation—even for goats.

Dealing with the Ladies League for Democratic Action can be difficult especially if they want to be Geisha girls.

Breaking up the stills in Tabiki village ended up with a drunk sergeant.

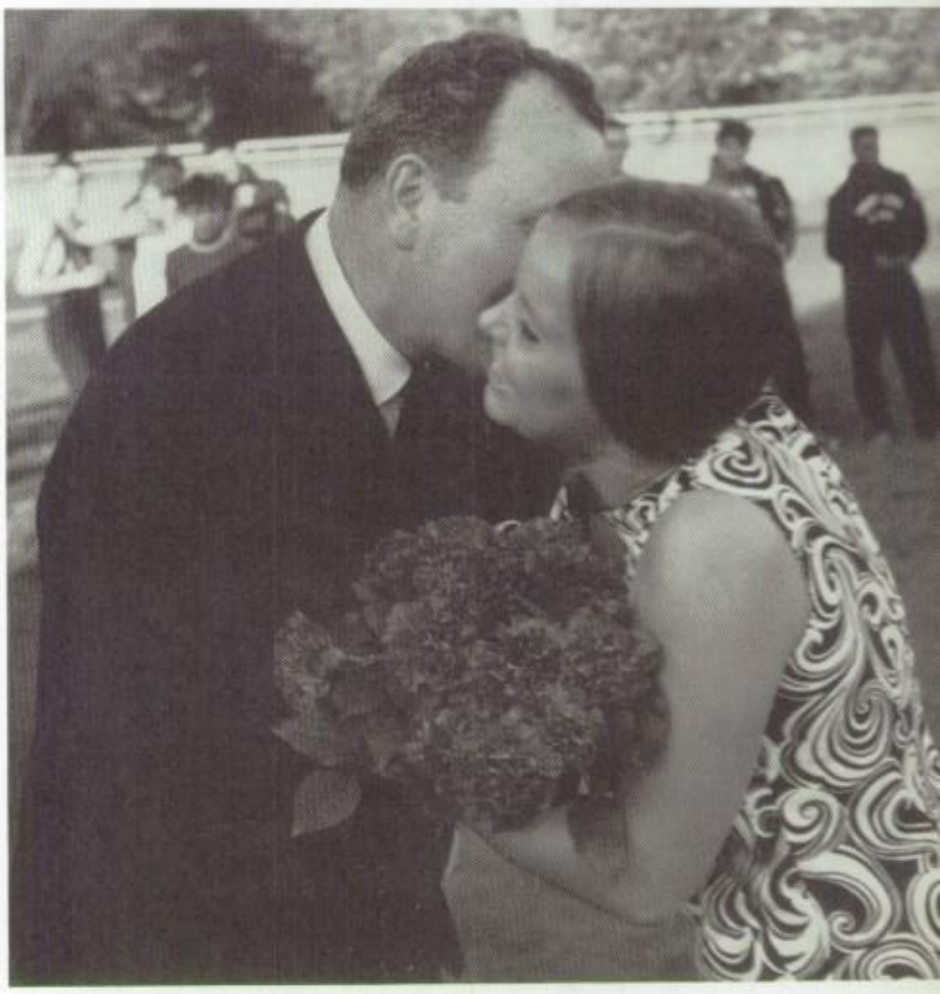
Frequent long-distance calls between the base and the Tabiki village added to the Colonel's growing concern.

The tender grasp of the lovely Lotus Blossom expressed the true feelings that a thousand words could never tell.

Track queen and court '68

Marty Essling—1968 Track Queen

Sally Pfaff was first runner-up.



Marty receives a kiss of congratulations from Mr. Mitchell.

Prom queen and court 1968

Shalimar gardens

For each one attending the Prom the evening holds a separate and special memory. Amid the mood of bouquets and music walked Queen Sally Pfaff and her date Michael Wade.

Dancers took time out to rest their feet and admire the atmosphere.

Shalimar, the tropical garden
paradise of exotic India,
Under a domed temple of multi-splendored blue,
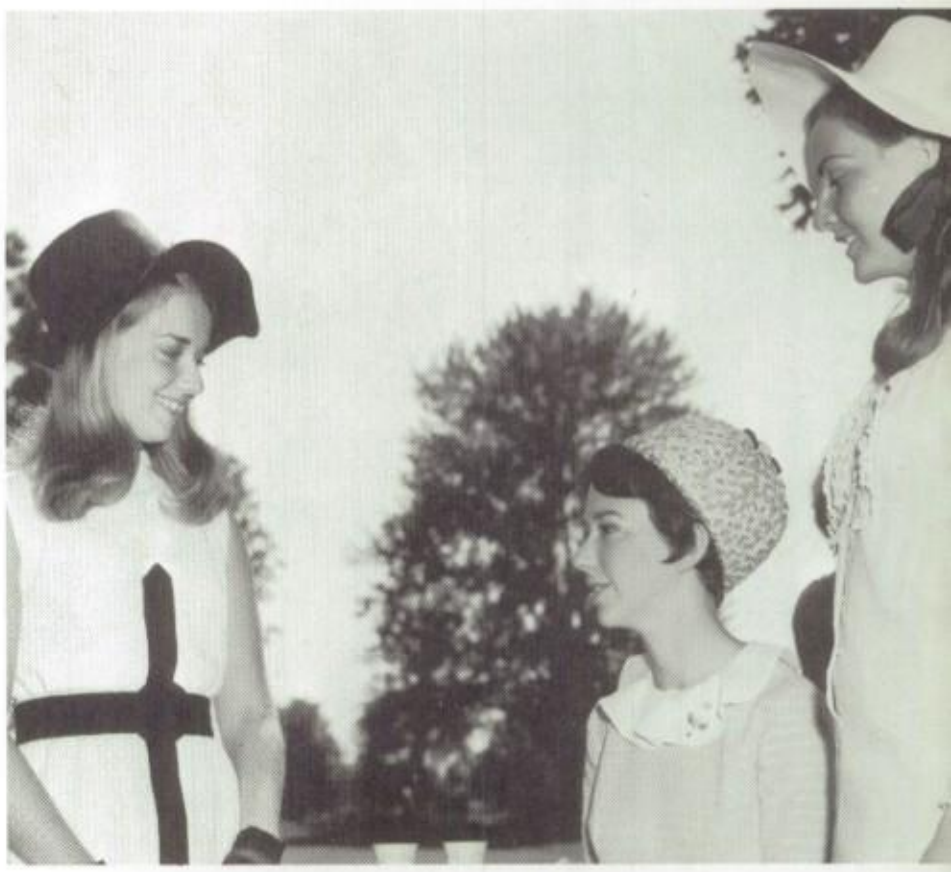
For one brief, but unforgettable
evening,
There was a shining world
known as Shalimar . . .

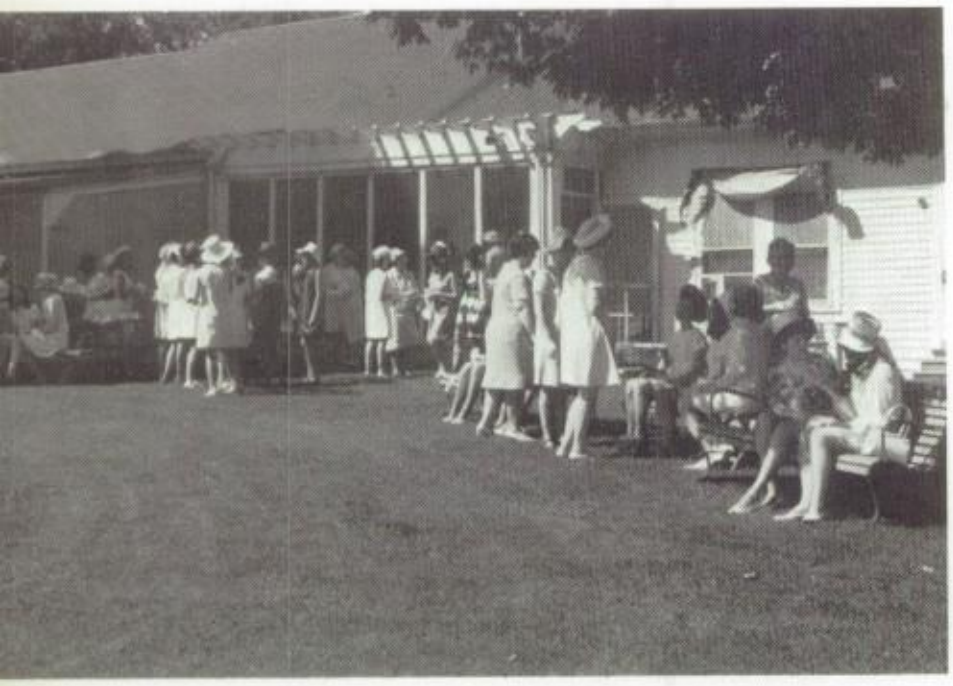
After weeks of preparation and anticipation, prom goers check their coats before that first glimpse of the decorated auditorium.

Proceeding the crowning of the queen, class sponsors Mrs. Jeanette Cassel and Mr. Larry Eastman were presented with gifts by the grateful Junior Class.

A.A.U.W. Tea for Senior Girls

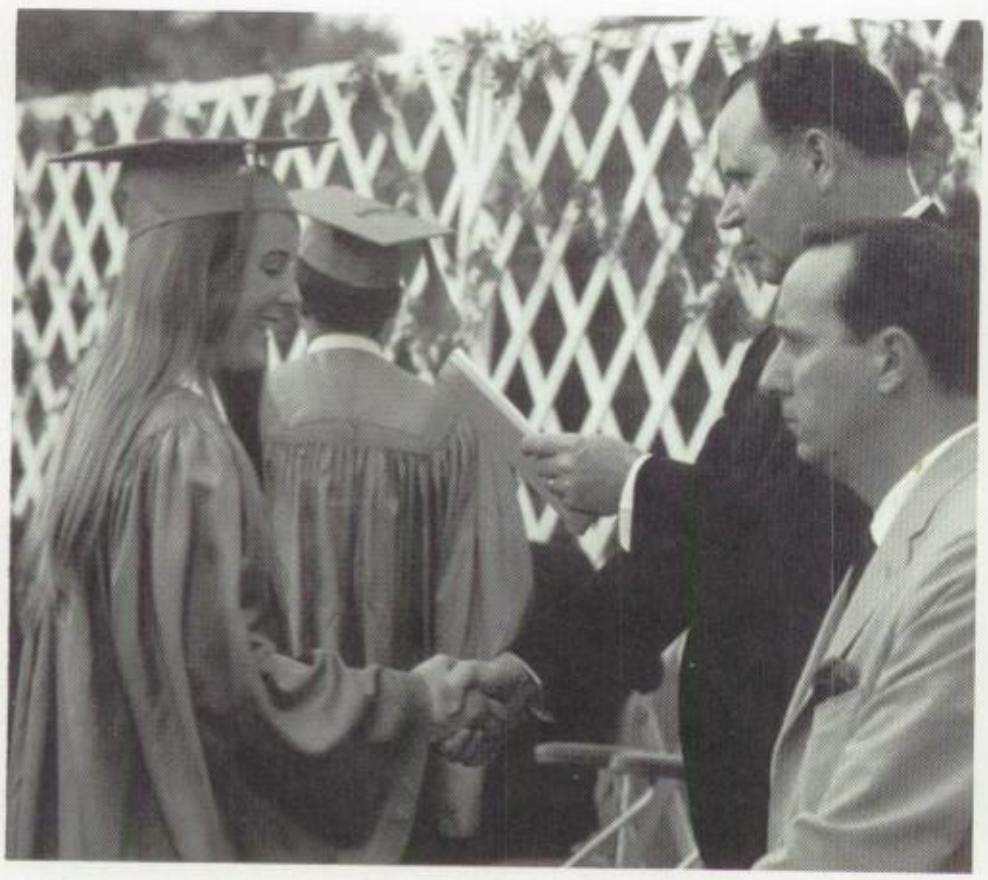


Jari Jasinoski, Nancy Marshall, and Julie Groman stop to discuss the activities of busy Senior Week, of which the tea is an important part.



The speaker of the day was Mrs. Lyn Wilde Cathcart who spoke about woman's need for charm.

Class of '68— graduation



Thoughtful and attentive graduating Seniors listened to the address by Dr. Lynus Barnes. This was the grand finale of years of preparation and the start of a new way of life for 513 young people.

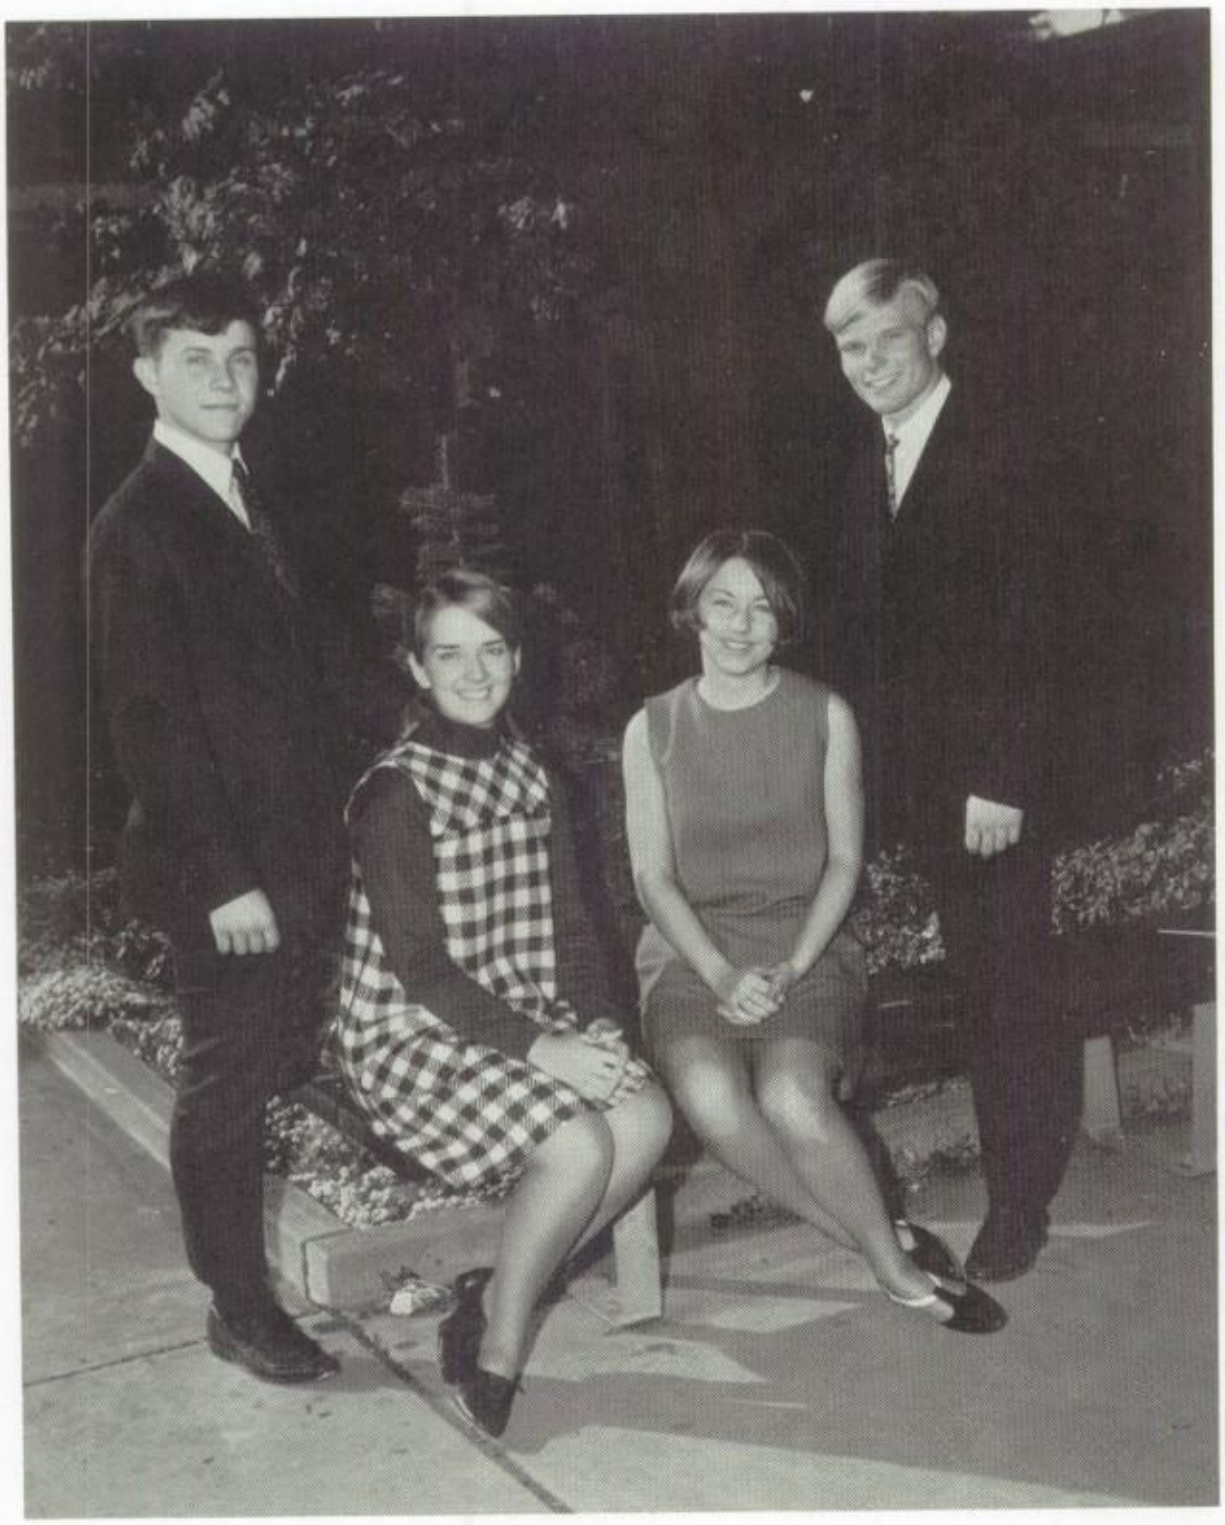
Seniors



Class officers

Senior class officers: Dave Hostetler, Jari Jasinoski, Pam Philbrook, and Paul Gullickson.

The seniors got off to a bright start with the election of the "Sunny Ones"—Paul Gullickson, president; Dave Hostetler, vice-president; Pam Philbrook, secretary; and Jari Jasinoski, treasurer. Class sponsors were Miss Kreutner and Mr. Cooper.

Senior girl and boy representatives helped to broaden civic interest. Students were able to participate in a large number of clubs, including the new ones—International Club, House Design Club and Inter-Club. School spirit grew as seniors won the spirit stick at the first two pep sessions and helped to introduce the new cheer, "Have We Got Spirit?"

Special senior days included sweatshirt day, dress-up day, and blue-day. Unforgettable events were the State Baseball Championship, Homecoming, the G.R., the Jr.-Sr. Banquet, and the Prom.

Christina Velez

Christina Velez lived with the Carl E. Krentz family—Karla, Mr. Krentz, Jenny, Chris, Mark, Mrs. Krentz, Randy, and Mindy.

Christina Velez, A.F.S. student

Christina Velez, A.F.S. student, came from Quito, Equador. Chris found L.P.H.S. very different since she went to an all girl school in her native country.

Would you believe that this slim, long-haired girl actually has curly hair! She is very quiet, but she has a pleasant personality.

We hope she has gained as much knowledge of our country as we have learned about Equador, for she has truly been a good representative of her country. Memories will last forever as we look back and remember Chris Velez.

An evening study session at the Krentz home benefits both Karla and Chris.

Chris is delighted by Miss Evans' approval of her work.

Marching band highlights halftime

The LaPorte High School Band adds color and music to halftime activities during the football season. The band features a color guard, flag twirlers, majorettes, and a new addition, two solo twirlers. The show follows one theme which is carried out through the music and supplemented by band formations.

MAJORETTES—C. Harrell, C. Geyer, D. Shepard, M. Duda, D. Heffner

Student Council

The Student Council keeps LPHS in "tune with the times." The officers are elected at the end of their Junior year while the representatives are elected the following fall. The purpose of the Student Council is to serve as the voice of the student body. The Student Council is in charge of the school bookstore and also serves as the organizing force for the Homecoming activities each year. This year, as an additional service, the Student Council supervised the purchasing and planting of trees and shrubs around the school.

There are opportunities in the music department for almost every musical interest. A Cappella Choir consists of upperclassmen chosen in the spring for the following year. Swing Choir members are chosen from A Cappella Choir. This select group presents two programs during the school year, in addition to performing for various civic organizations. Men's Chorus gives boys an opportunity to present some of the musical selections which are specially arranged for male voices.

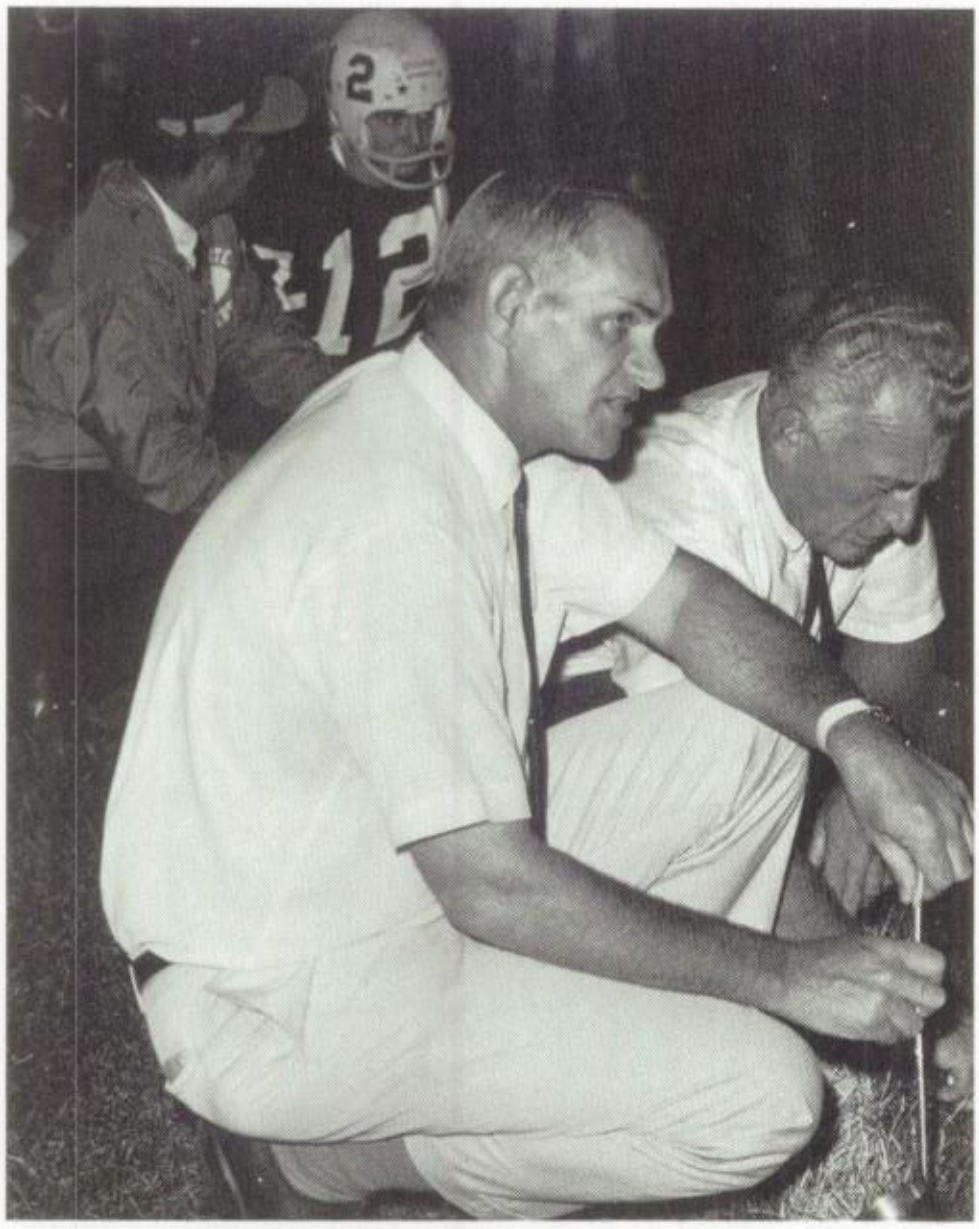
Bring Back
The Bell

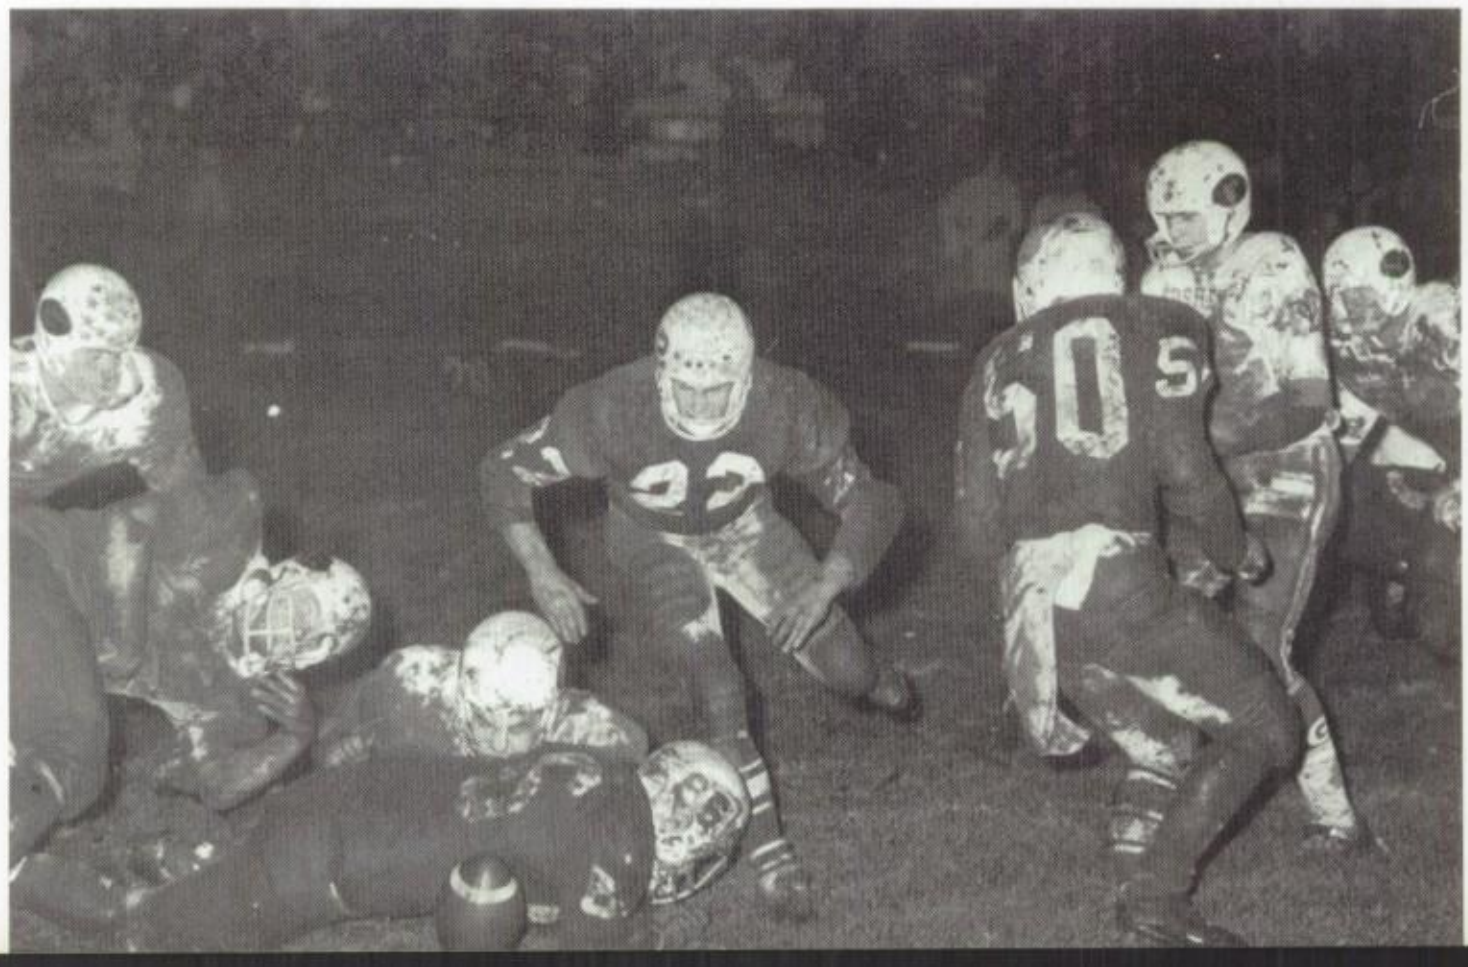


Strategic plays from the coaches help win the game.

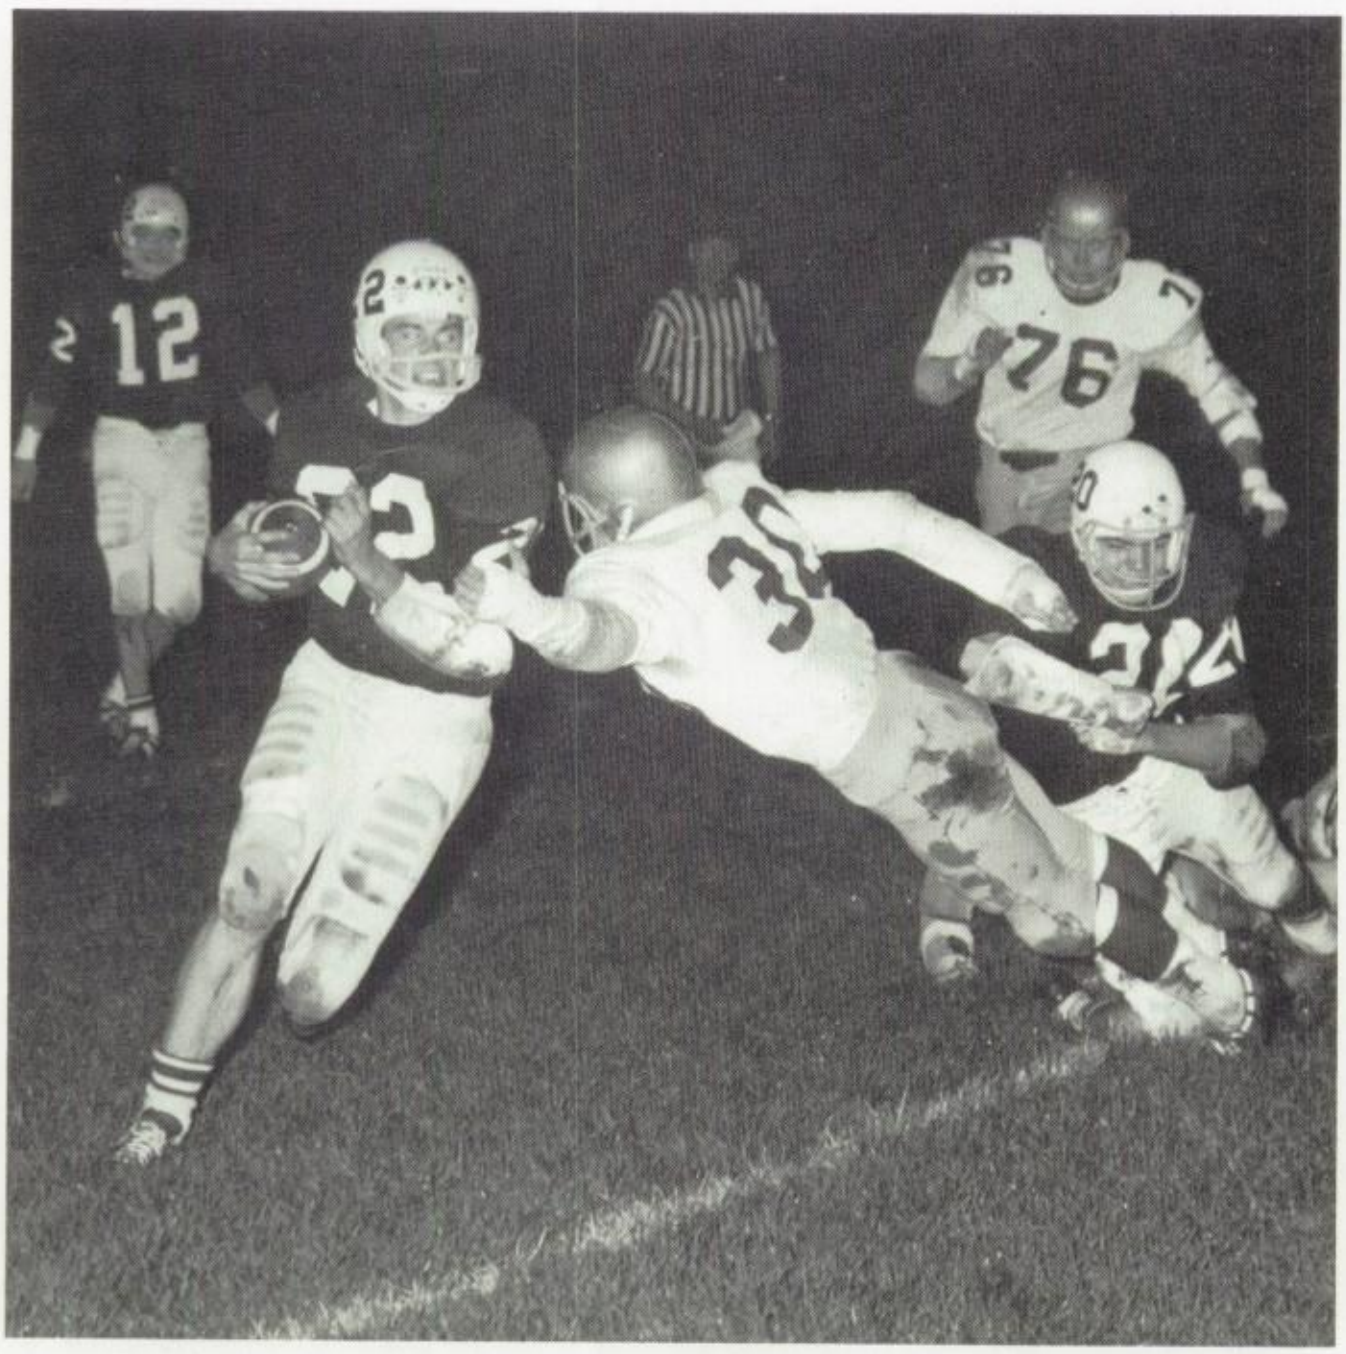
The Slicers failed to realize that this year was to have been a rebuilding season. Our team rolled over stubborn foes, brought back the bell, and won their last four games for an inspiring 7—3 record. Top-notch Slicer performance was acknowledged at the fall sports banquet in the following fields:

Most improved ..... Dennis Schmidt
Best defensive back ..... Roger Brown
Best blocker ..... (Capt.) Pete Tabaka
Most valuable ..... Rich Lenard
Slicer award ..... Bob Giesler

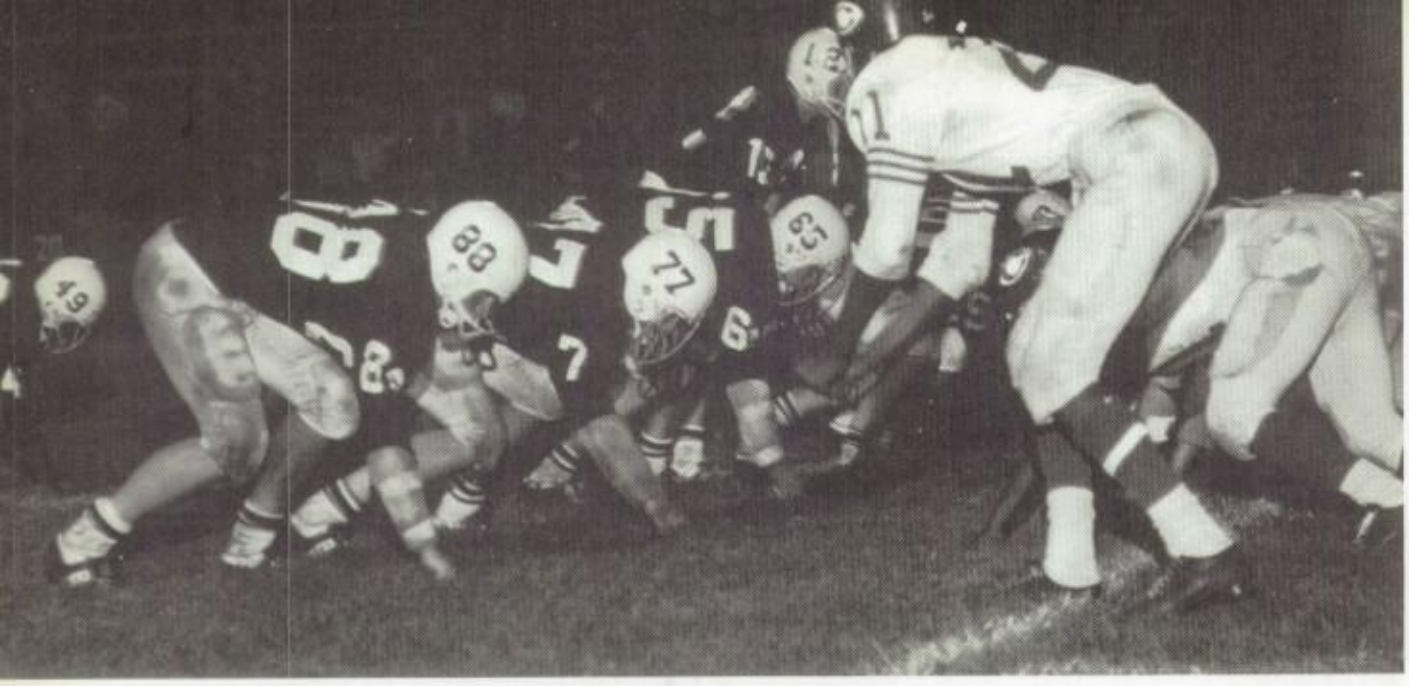
A FUMBLE . . . and the race for the ball is on.



Top ground gainer Rich Lenard plows through Central's faultering defense.



In this end run Jim Magnuson turns on the speed to gain much-needed yardage.



A sturdy line helps win the game.

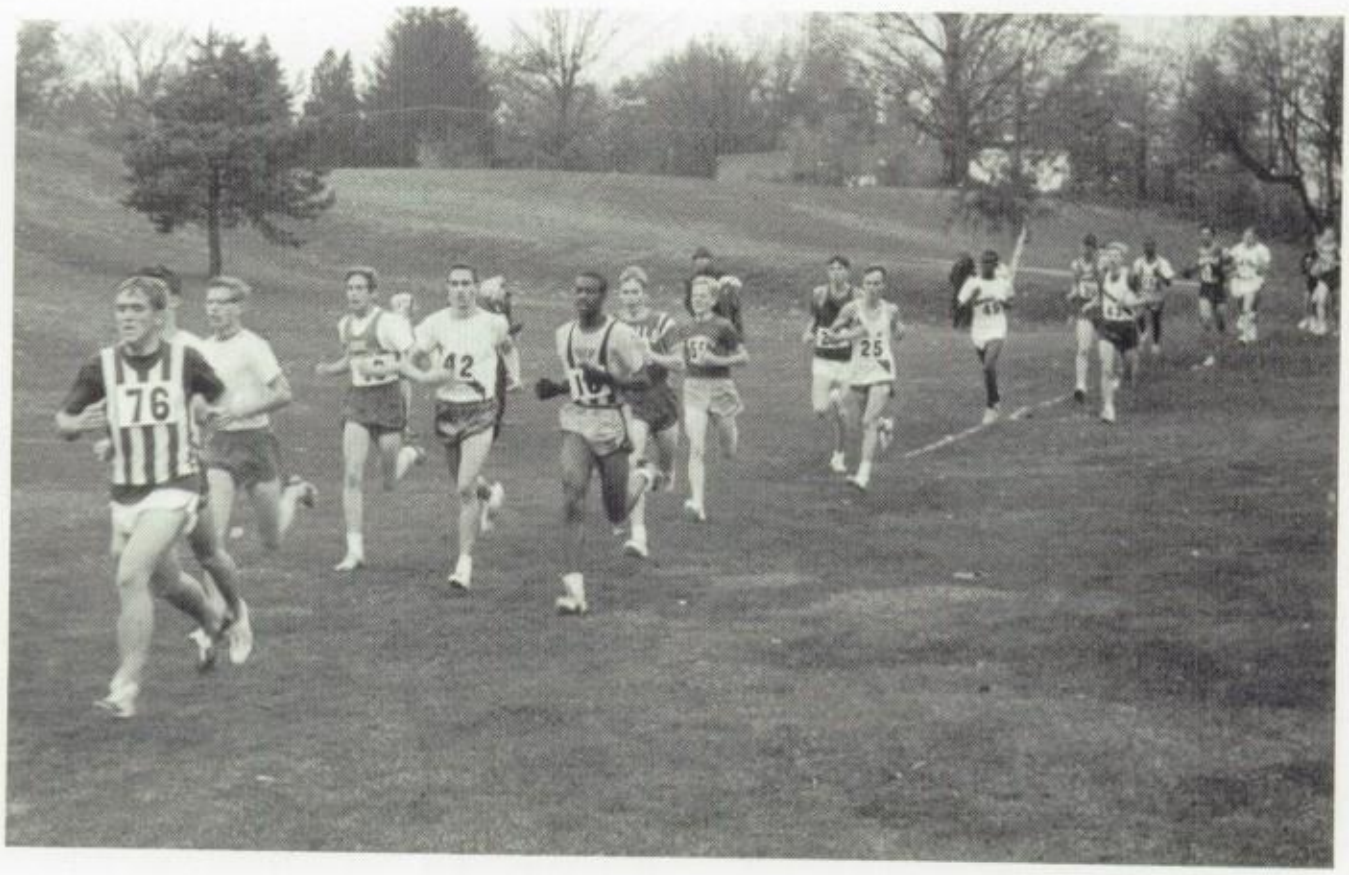
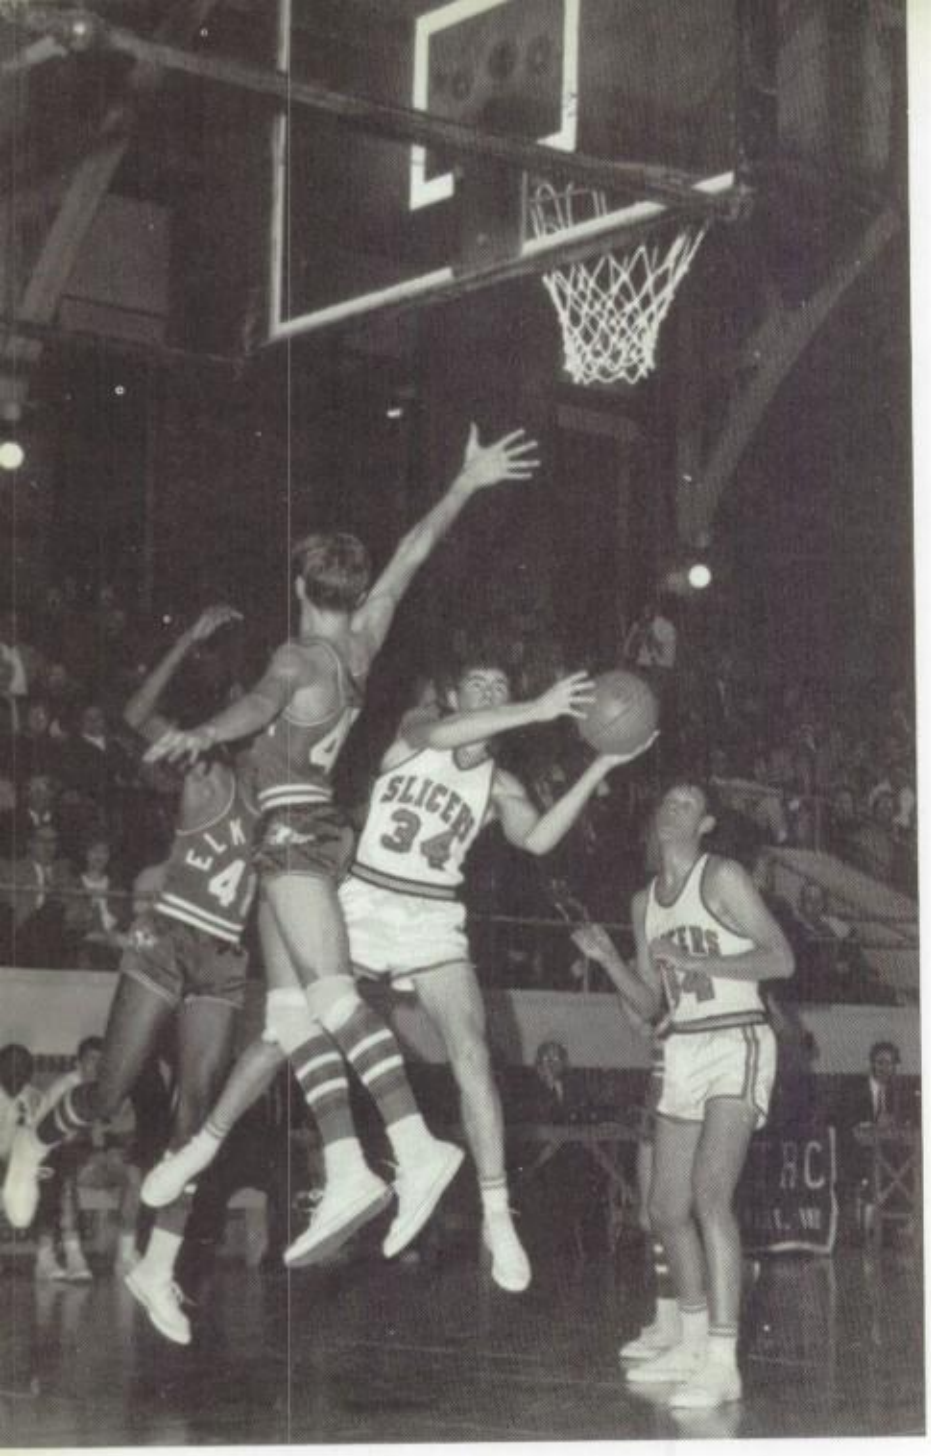
Superior Slicer performance was recognized at the Fall Sports Banquet in the following fields:

Most Valuable ..... Richard Wise
Most improved ..... Hugh Tonagel

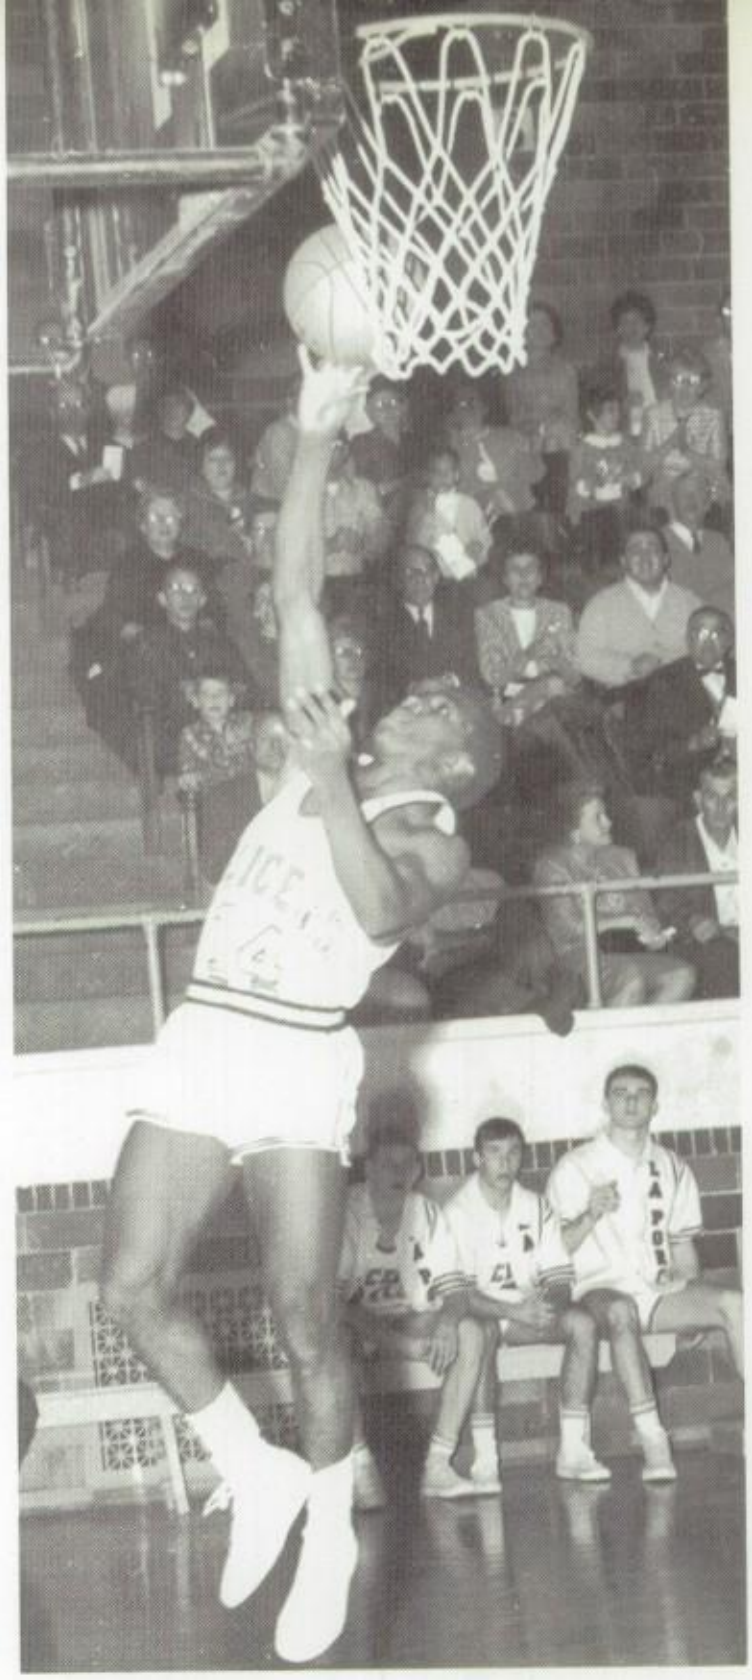


Harriers strain to overtake the top position.

BASKETBALL



Hugh Tonagel finds it a struggle for two much needed points.

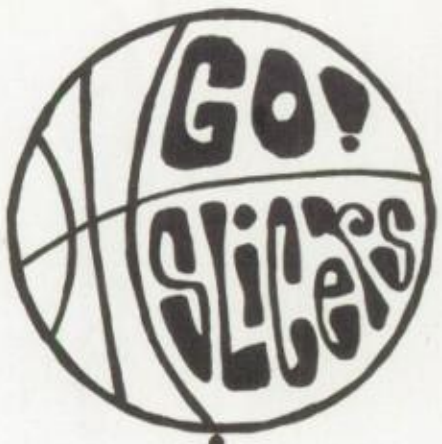


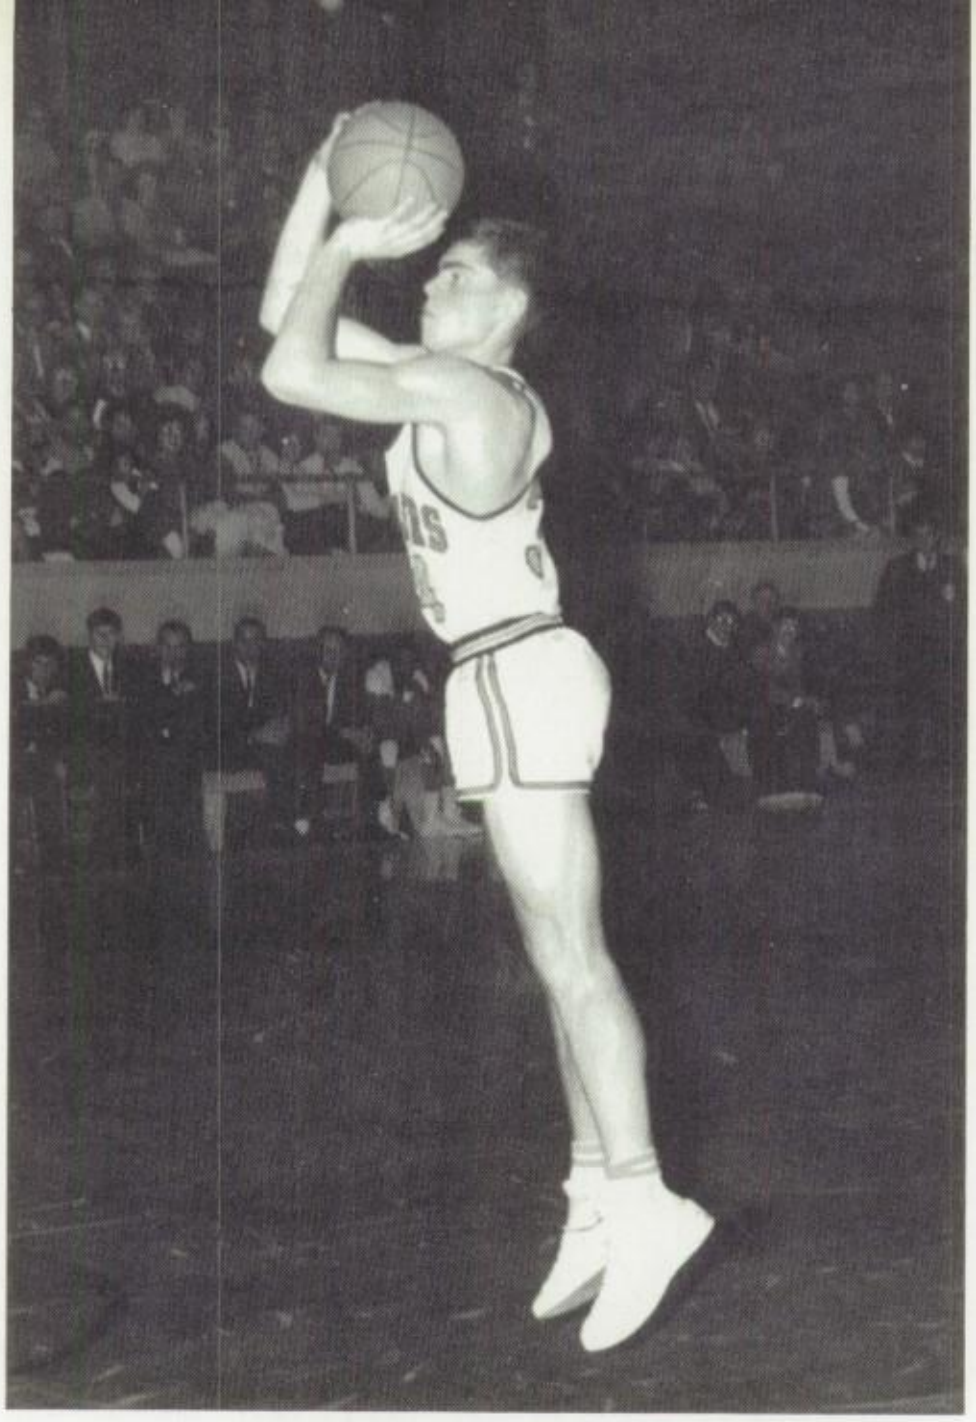
Small but quick, Joe Cash lays in two.

Pressures mount as Coach Plantz gives instructions.

The basketball team experienced a tough season, which is indicated by the season's overall record of 8 wins and 14 defeats. Slicer Basketball honors went to the following:

Best defense ..... Joe Cash
All around player .... Tom Jahns
Most valuable ..... Tom Jahns
Most rebounds ..... Tom Jahns
Most improved .... Dean Heise
Kaminski Free Throw Award ..... Doug Moo

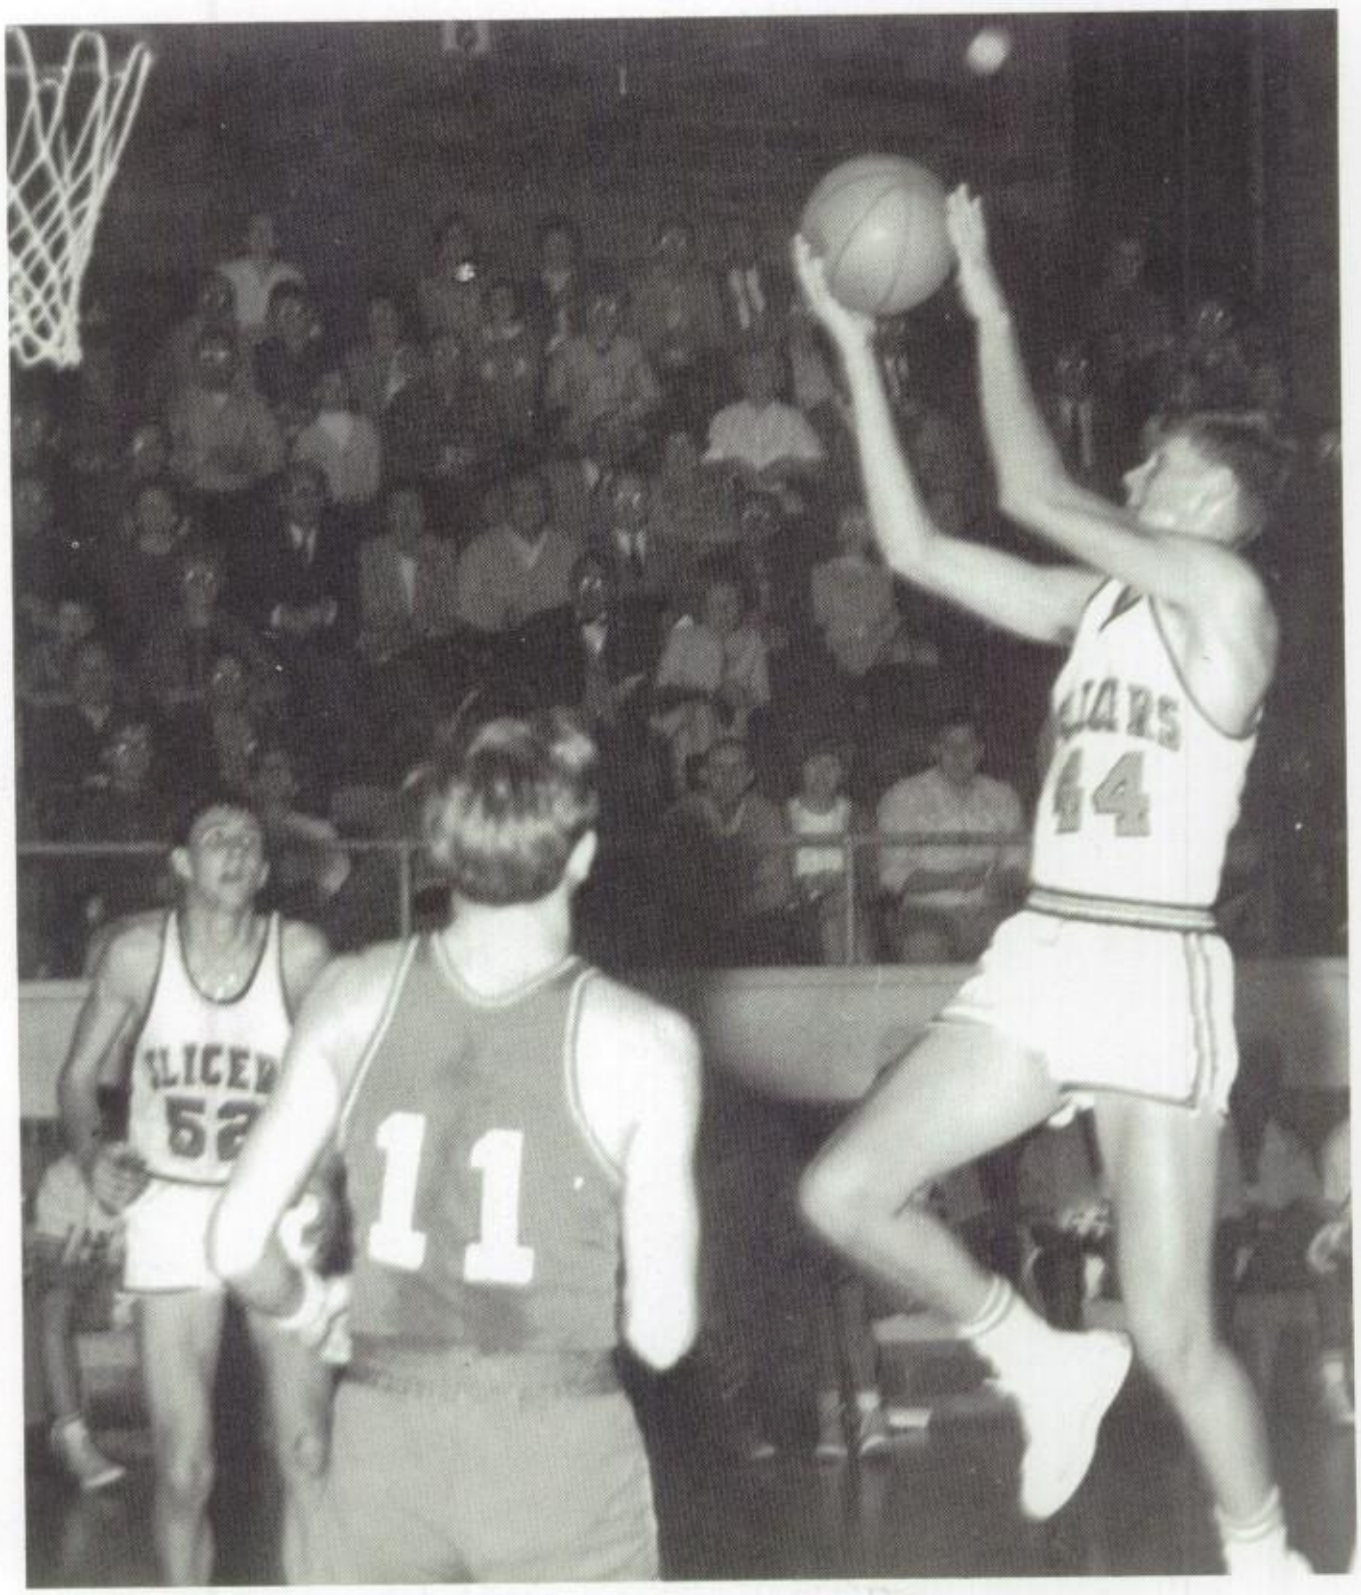




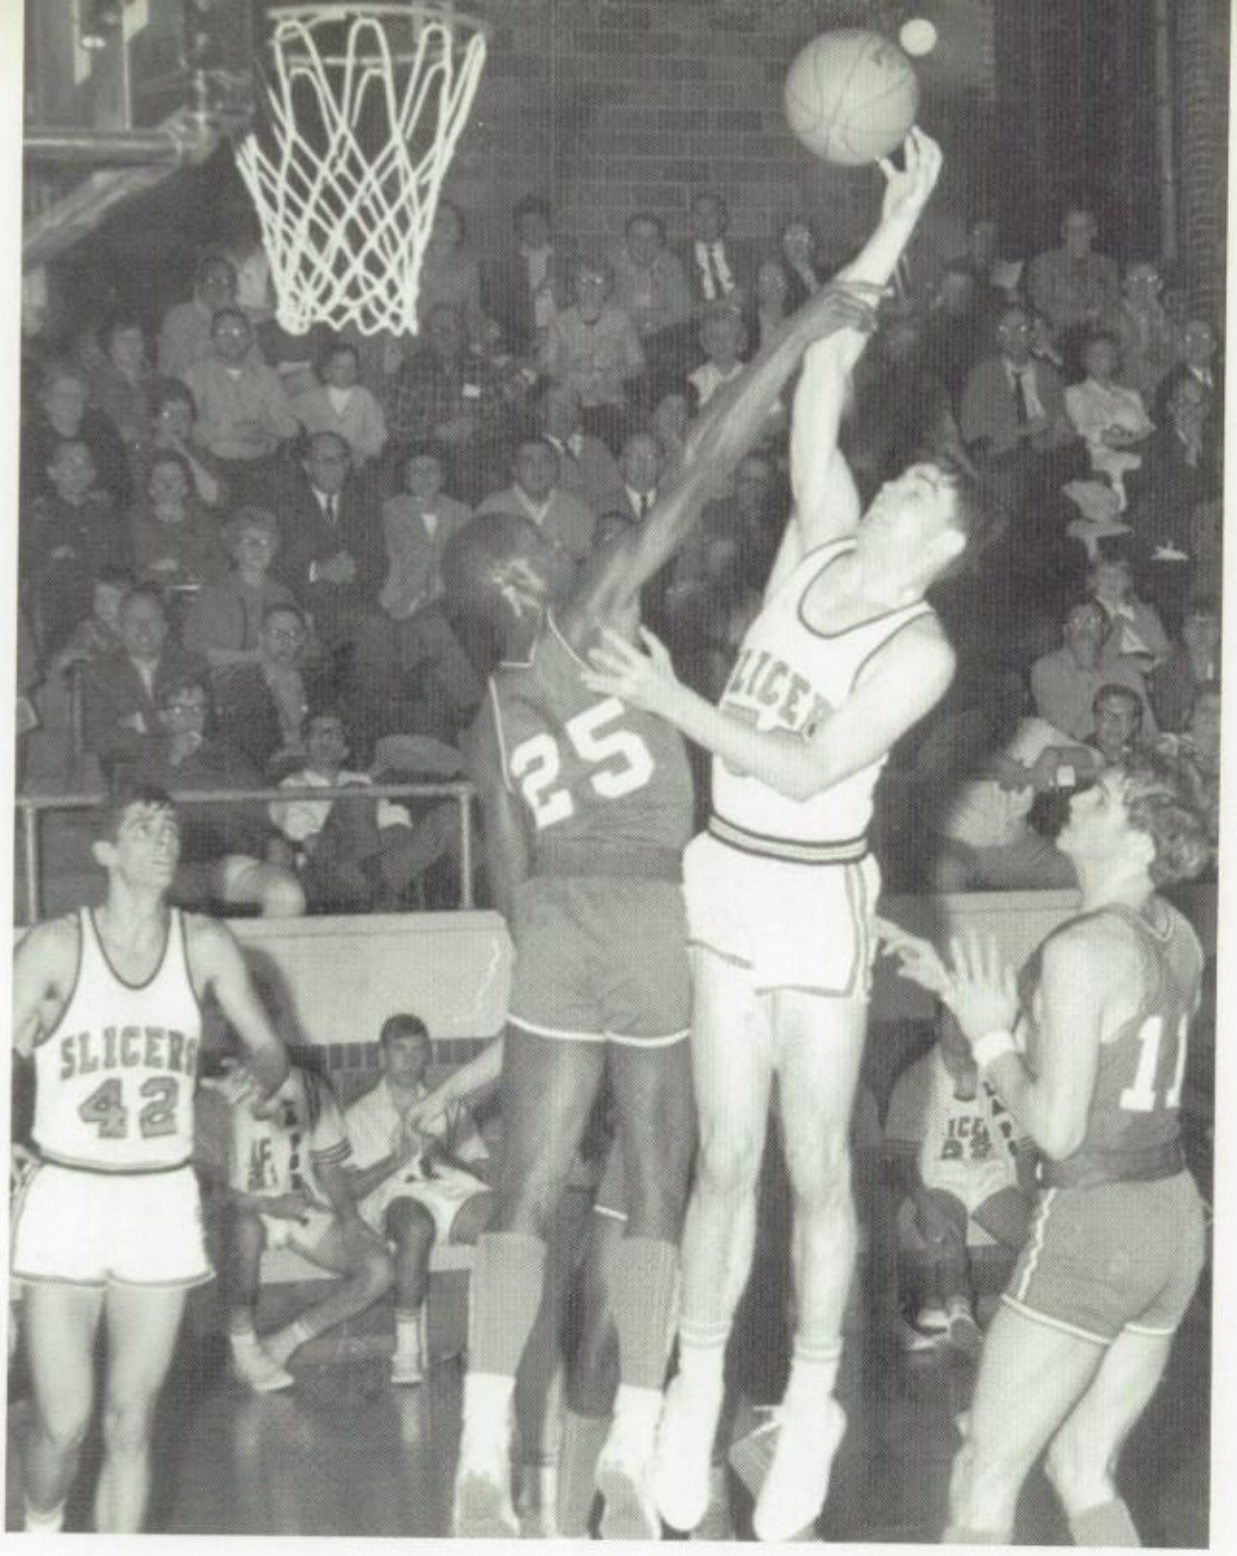
Tonagel tries for two.

Almost a tradition with every home game, Captain Joe Cash leads the team onto the playing floor.

Larry Dunlap sees an opening and turns on the speed.

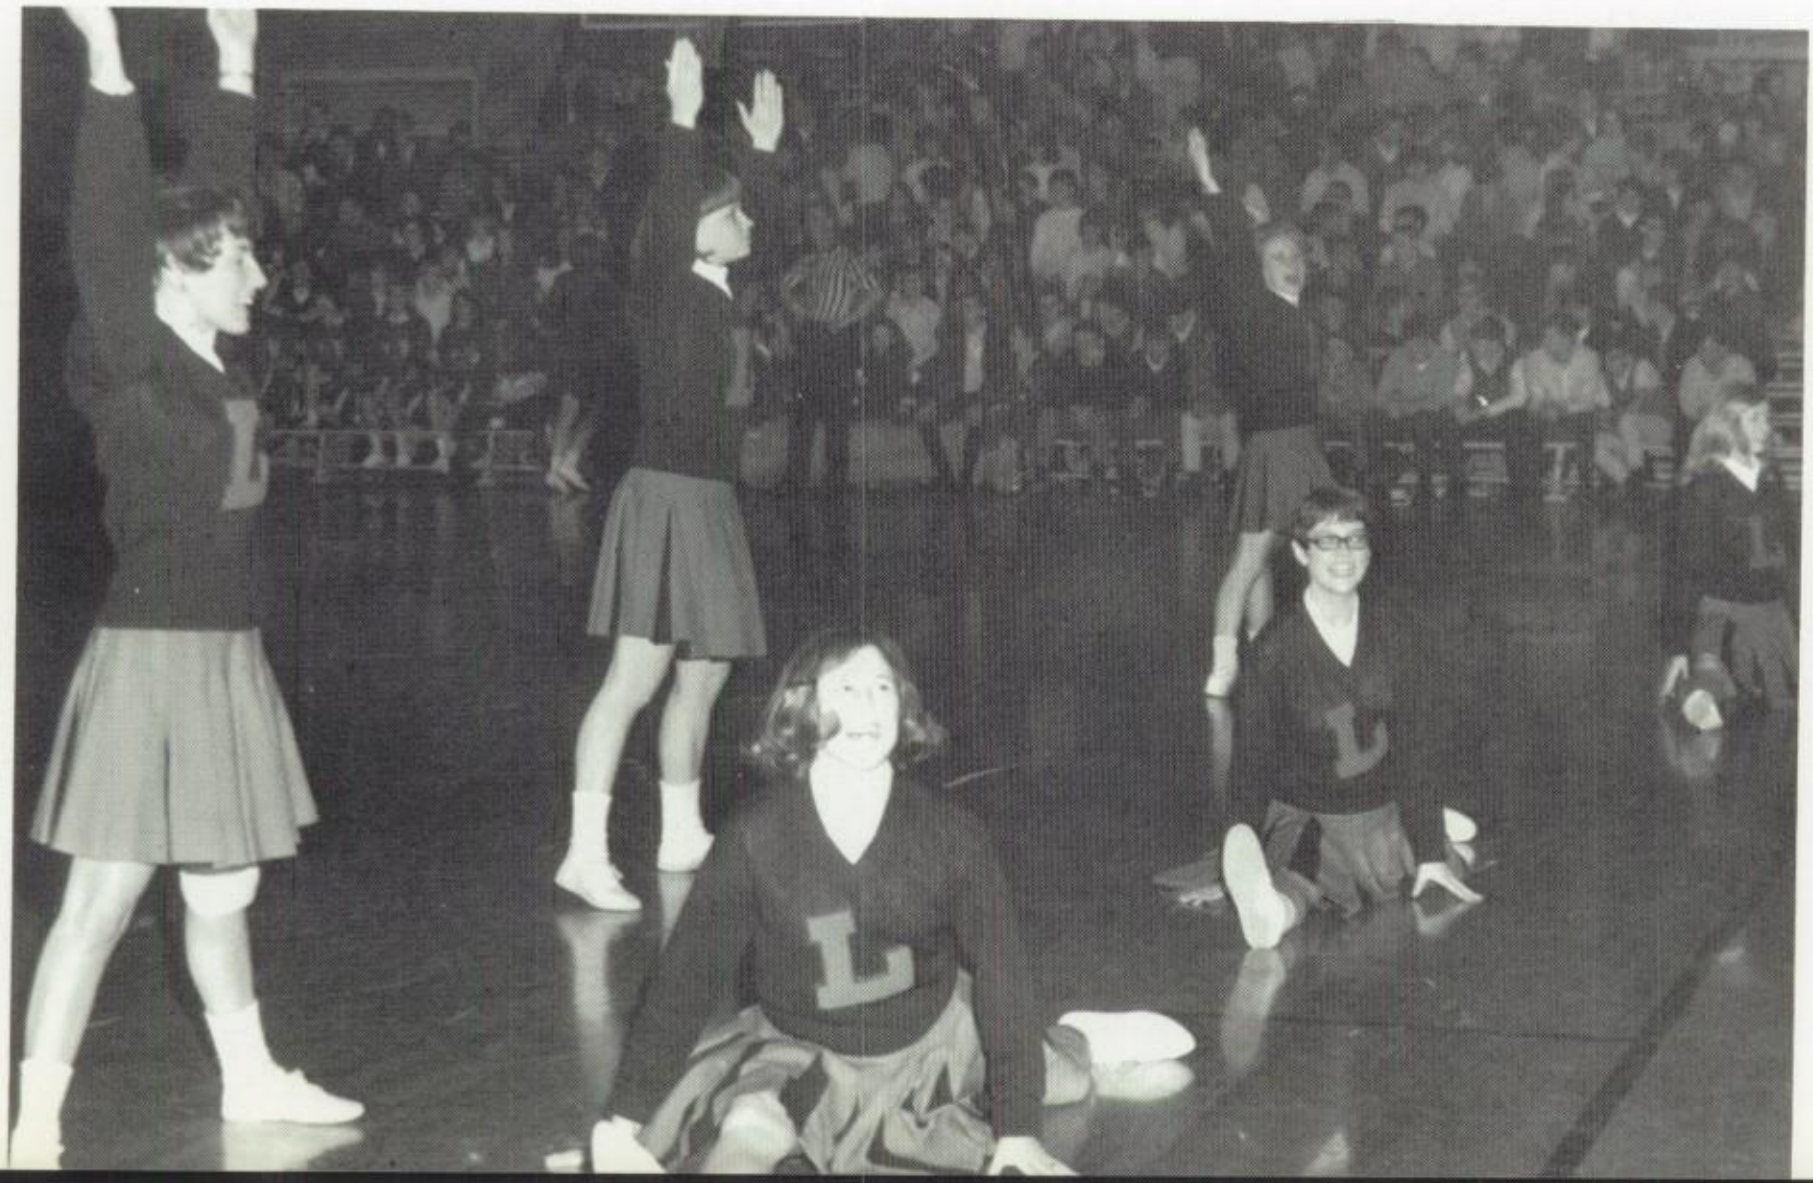


Doug Moo shows his answer to the "no dunking" rule.



Dave Miller draws a two shot foul.

Always on the sidelines to boost their team on to victory, the cheerleaders put up a Slicer yell.



SWIMMING

Richard Turk drives into action during the sectional relays.

Racing the clock + close finishes = confusion.

They're off and swimming at the sound of the starting gun.

A brighter year could hardly have been expected of the LaPorte High School swim team. Our tankers won two invitationals, the sectional, and a season record of 11 wins and 5 losses. Top-performance was awarded in the following areas:

Most valuable ..... Jim Lehner
Most improved .... Dave Hostetler

GLAD YOU DIDN'T DROP OUT?

A diploma looks nice in a scrapbook, but don't expect to impress a lot of people with it. One thing you can bank on . . . it's not a passport to an easy life. It is proof, however, that you have perseverance which, when added to your other fine qualities and capabilities, will pay off for you throughout your lifetime.

It is our wish that graduation will not be the end, but the beginning of your quest for knowledge . . . the real key to a happy, fruitful life.

Don't forget the stupid things we did and all the times we stayed overnight at your house and almost killed your cat.
